BE WARNED IN TIME

A man who was too stingy to take his home paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by neighbours. In his haste the boy ran over a hive of bees and in ten minutes he looked like a warty squash. His cries reached his father who ran to his assistance, and, falling to note a barbed wire fence, ran into that breaking it down, cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy and ruining a $7.00 pair of pants. The cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into the corn. Hearing the racket his wife ran, upset a four gallon churn of rich cream into a basket of kittens and drowned them. In her hurry she lost a $40 set of false teeth. The baby, left alone crawled through the cream and into the parlor, ruining a brand new $20.00 rug. During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up eleven setting hens, and the calves got out and chewed the tails off our night shirts. The man could have a paper of his own at $2.00 a year and saved all the trouble and expense.
