Gnr. Ralph Forfar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Forfar who enlisted in March as a signaller, is now on his way to the West Coast.

Goodwood

Harvey Peasby is limping on one foot since the other one was severely squeezed by a truck passing by.

William Wilkinson is getting his summer house ready so that he will be able to rest in the coolest place in Goodwood when the hot days come.

John Foskett was home from training camp at Ottawa for a few days, we are glad to report that his mother is recovering nicely from her recent accident.

With Mrs. Tindall in charge of the program, Mrs. Arthur Dowswell on Wednesday evening gave a report on the Institute convention at the home of Mrs. Earl Tindall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Walker of Dickson Hill were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Blake Johnson here. Mrs. Walker is a sister of Mr. Johnson.

The continued rains of last week has left low gardens about Goodwood under water in places and while garden stuff is growing, those with low places could only expect success had they planted water cress.

The annual meeting of the local branch of the Bible Society will be held in the Baptist Church, on Tuesday evening, June 16th. Rev. Mr. Allnutt, Field Secretary will show motion pictures of Bible work in foreign lands.

The L.O.L. will hold their annual church parade on Sunday afternoon, June 23, to the Baptist church where Rev. W. J. Holmes will deliver the address. At present this former pastor and his wife are both quite ill, but it is anticipated that Mr. Holmes will have made recovery before the end of the month.

The United Church pastor is away on his honeymoon. There should be an interesting and warm welcome extended the couple on their return. Mr. Montgomery of Hamilton took the services last Sunday and Mr. Redwing is to be here for next Lord's Day.

The regular young Peoples Meeting was held on Monday evening, June 8th. The social convener; Leslie Meyers, had charge of the program. Those taking part were Leslie Meyers, George Dowswell, Martha Stewart, and Alan Taylor. After the meeting games were enjoyed by all.

Those who attended the wedding of the United Church pastor Rev. Robert McLaughlin performed at the College Chapel, Toronto, Saturday included Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Feasby, Mr. and Mrs. D. McDonald, Mrs. John Rae.

We are reminded that summer is here again because it is our duty to announce the annual concert and supper to be held at the United Church here in Goodwood. This is one of the popular garden party of the season, and the Port Perry Y.P.S. has been secured to present their play "Deferred Proposal," plus an hour from their singing school. Watch for bills with more details, and be sure and mark the calendar right away for, June 24.
