Notes and Comments

All Agreed ?

Not a single dissenting voice has been heard so far against holding the municipal election on the first Monday in December instead of the first Monday in January, for the Village of Stouffville.

It is up to You

A concert is being held in aid of the Stouffville band, that prized organization of boys that you so much wanted to see organized into a musical group only a couple of years ago or so. Now they need your help in the matter of raising funds to carry on their studies. Practices cost money, and there is the item for music. You will be asked to help the organization right now by buying at least a couple of tickets for their concert, even if you cannot attend. Do not let the boys down at this time.

Our Personal War

The aggressive spirit, native to Canadians, will be reflected in the results of the Third Victory Loan. We like to "get things done." So we press for land action in Europe, even as we realize that such action will take a toll of lives of some of the boys we love, our sons, our brothers and our husbands.

Out of that same spirit we will provide the money needed to see these boys through to Berlin and Berchtesgaden. If we cannot go with them personally through the hell of explosives, we shall see to it that they take with them all the material they need to extinguish that hell as they drive into the heart of Germany.

If, in order to buy bonds, some of us must choose between comfort and no comfort, between entertainment that costs money and entertainment that doesn't, between lots to eat and not so much to eat, between new clothes and the old ones, Canadians will choose to do what is necessary to buy the bonds that bolster the boys.

Why Do They Work for Nothing ?

York County Council has been backed into a corner by Hon. Mr. McQuestin who virtually outlawed what the council wanted to do when it appointed two of its members to the Toronto and York Road Commission at a stated salary. In the past, the two members serving on this Commission were paid $7.00 per meeting and their expenses. In addition, the Commissioners were guilty of bad practices, such as selling trucks and cars for which one was agent into the hands of the Commission.

In order that Commissioners would conduct themselves as dignified as a judge, a straight salary was set, and men who could be relied on to conduct the Commission in a thoroughly satisfactory way were chosen. One of them was the reeve of Whitchurch. He was approached and offered the post at a stated amount. He accepted.

Then Mr. McQuestin, who is something of a boss, declared a salary was illegal, and simply wouldn't agree to anything except that two men he found who would do the job for nothing. Mr. McQuestin, so far as we can learn, does not work for nothing. He is one of the best paid men in the Ontario Government.

Mr. Toole, reeve of Whitchurch, resigned. However, two "free" men were found, but the fact they must work for nothing, tends to have contractors who want to sell them something, taking pity on such men, and, well everybody knows what could happen. This is no reflection on the men offering to work for nothing. We would, however, be interested to know why they offer to work for nothing, when every man on the council has been well paid in the past for any Commission work done.

The Devil's Ashamed

The Devil sat by a lake of fire,
On a pile of sulphur kegs;
His head was bowed upon his breast,
His tail between his legs.
A look of shame was on his face
The sparks dripped from his eyes.
He had sent up his resignation
To the throne up in the skies.
"I'm down and out," the Devil said,
He said it with a sob,
"There are others that outclass me
And I want to quit the job.
Hell isn't in it with the land
That lies along the Rhine.
I'm a 'has-been' and a 'piker'
And therefore I resign.
Krupp, the ammunition maker,
With his bloody shot and shell,
Knows more about damnation
Than all the Imps of Hell.
Give my job to Hitler,
The author of this war,
He understands it better
A million times by far.
I hate to leave the old home,
The spot I love so well,
But I feel that I'm not up to date
In the art of running Hell."

THRASHING SUGAR ORDER REVIEW

To clear up misunderstanding regarding special allowances of sugar for feeding threshing gangs, the ration division of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board has issued a further explanation.

Until Oct. 31, by which time it is assumed threshing operations will have completed, an applicant who is feeding threshers may obtain extra sugar on the basis of one ounce per person per meal.

No voucher is required, only the merchant must note the details and place it on an invoice to get his sugar replaced.

ETHEL PHILLIPS WEDS

L. H. STIVER
Miss Myrta Ethel Phillips, daughter of Mrs. Phillips and the late Mr. John Phillips, and Mr. Lloyd H. Stiver, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stiver, of Unionville, were married in the Church of the Epiphany with Rev. G. S. Despard officiating. Mr. T. M. Sargent played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Mr. J. F. Phillips, wore a powder blue wool crepe ensemble with matching hat and veil and carried a hand bouquet of bouvardia and gardenias. She was attended by her sister, Miss Norma Phillips, in a peg-top wine wool crepe dress with matching beret, and bouquet of roses, pom poms and "mums." Mr. Lewis Stiver was his brother's best man.

Mrs. Phillips, mother of the bride, was wearing a grey crepe dress trimmed with sequins and corsage of cornflowers and bouvardia. The bride took her bouquet to the groom's mother, who is ill.
