

Holstein Men Bid $14,000 for Bull

But Coveted Yearling Sire Sold for $14,100 to a Chicago Buyer.

An association of York County Holstein men set out to buy the coveted yearling bull Montvic Renown which sold on Saturday for $14,100, at the dispersal sale of the G. M. Clemons herd at Brantford.

York County Holstein men through G. W. Henry bid the animal to $14,000, then dropped from the contest, when the buyer for Curtis Candy Co., of Chicago, promptly increased the $14,000 bid by $100, and was the declared buyer.

Lloyd Turner, and many other Holstein men from Stouffville district, attended the sale. Mr. Turner would have had a share in the famous bull had he been secured for York County.

Seldom has there ever been so many bidders trying to purchase a top bull at an auction. There were no less than four in the competition at $13,000 and over. They were George W. Henry, for the York County Holstein Club; Mrs. B. M. Hallward of North Hatley, Quebec; F. C. Whitney and Henry W. Samson, of New York State, and the successful buyer, the Curtis Candy Company of Chicago.

Indicative of the value placed on Renown was the fact that five baby calves, the oldest three months brought $2,450.

SAVE YOUR FATS

Ottawa, December 8th—A Dominion-wide campaign for the collection of fats and bones has been launched by the National Salvage Division of the Department of National War Services, in co-operation with the Oils and Fats Administration of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. It is announced by Charles LaPerle, Director of National Salvage.

In connection with this new war drive, Mrs. Phyllis Turner, Oils and Fats Administrator, declared that today Canada faces a serious shortage of fats and oils for war industries, and needs a minimum through salvaged fats and bones, 35,000,000 pounds of fat a year, or, reduced to per capita figures, about one ounce of fat per person per week.

This is not just another brief campaign, with a spurt to be put on for a few days or weeks and then dropped, the Salvage Director emphasizes. The campaign must be sustained, right across Canada, in every household, hotel and restaurant from day to day for the duration of the war.

Housewives are the key people in this collection. They are asked to take waste fats and bones to their meat dealer.

In any community where a dealer, in any community where a fats and bones collection system is already in operation, either through municipal collection or sponsored by a local voluntary salvage committee, housewives can continue to dispose of fats and bones through such a system.

The Canadian meat dealers, as their contribution, have undertaken to accept salvaged fats and bones at their stores, and to see that they are forwarded to the renderers and meat packers for the recovery of vital glycerine for explosives and other materials essential for war industries. Renderers and packers likewise have promised their co-operation in making the campaign a success.

Britain Salutes Canada

This young Briton, aged 3, is saluting Young Canadians, who last Christmas sent Santa Claus down her chimney by contributing to Christmas Cheer for British Children, an auxiliary of The Evening Telegram British War Victims' Fund. And she won't be disappointed, because already young Canadians and their parents have given over $60,000—or approximately the same as their gifts until Christmas Eve last year—to provide modest Yuletide luxuries to as many as possible of the 450,000 orphaned, maimed or homeless child victims of German air attacks over Britain.

Ringwood Farm Sold

Mrs. Robert Irwin has sold her 65 acre farm on the Markham-Whitchurch townline just west of town to a man from near Toronto who will take possession on the first of April. Since the death of her husband a few years ago Mrs. Irwin had offered the place for sale at $5,000. Many would-be buyers came along, she reports, but none of them could raise a reasonable down payment. The property has been in the Irwin name for 31 years and was bought from the Wideman sisters at that time. It is ideally located with a wonderful spring creek available.

Mrs. Irwin will move to Stouffville when she vacates the farm in the spring and has purchased the John Cleaver house on Victoria street just north of the Gold Fish plant. The Cleavers also own the house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Archie Harding.

FARMER AND TEAM TAKE COLD DUCKING

Driving across a small pond near his farm north of Vaudorf, a well known farmer Mr. Elmer Starr was precipitated into the midst of the very cold water, when the ice broke beneath the heavy horses, and they went down to their bellies before striking the bottom. Then they plunged to shore, dragging the sleighs through the water and ducking the owner who failed to jump to safety as did John Cline riding on the sleighs with Mr. Starr.

It was an unexpected dip, but neither man nor beast was any the worse for the experience.

URGE NEW REGALIA FOR YORK WARDEN

The last official act of Warden C. Earl Toole and his two York county commissioners will be to suggest "suitable regalia and dress" for next year's warden. "The present warden's outfit has served its purpose," declared Reeve W. E. MacDonald of New Toronto. "It was made in my time and has been in continual use since 1938. I think an ordinary legal gown would be appropriate for the warden of 1943."

CANADIAN NATIONAL

FOOD COSTS CUT NOW IN FORCE

A bold counter-stroke to stem the rising tide of Canadian living costs and throttle a threatened wartime inflation spiral was announced last week by Hon. J.L. Hilsley, minister of finance, and Donald Gordon, chairman of the wartime prices and trade board.

The five-point direct action program to buttress the nation-wide prices and wages control policy embarked on a year ago, consists in the main of reduction in consumer prices of five major items of everyday food as follows:

- 1—Retail milk prices will be reduced two cents a quart by a federal government subsidy on fluid milk.
- 2—Retail price of coffee will be reduced four cents a pound.
- 3—Retail price of tea will be cut by 10 cents a pound.
- 4—Retail prices of oranges will be pushed down to about their September-October, 1941, level by elimination of duties and taxes.
- 5—Retail prices of beef may be slightly lowered and increases beyond the future announced ceiling prices averted by cutting the margin of profit of some retail dealers to a reasonable limit.

The program may cost the government $40,000,000 over the next
