WE SMELLED VENISON

There was a radiant odor of roast venison filling the air around Unionville, on Monday evening, which, on investigation by the scribe proved to be a huge roast of the toothsome meat cooking on the premises of mine host the Findlay Bros. at the local hostelry there, on order of Deputy Reeve Chas. Hooper. The west side county councillor was preparing a treat for his brethren around the council table. Council in session during the afternoon enjoyed the splendid repast, and we imagine Reeve Rennie spared no words in profusely thanking his colleague for the best venison supper he ever ate.
