THIRD LINE UXBRIDGE

Best wishes to the little girl at Tindal's.
Mr. Russel Dowswell is recovering from a case of mumps.
Pie Gordon Taylor spent the weekend with his wife and other relatives.
Mrs. Baldwin and George spent a day in the city recently visiting relatives.
The snow storm blocked the roads all through the district.
Where is the maintainer?
Sorry to hear Teddy Kidd is the victim of appendicitis. We hope for a speedy recovery.
Sorry to hear Mrs. Tindal is suffering from a serious case of pneumonia in Newmarket Hospital.

G. N. R. Robert Dawson and Mr. and Mrs. C. Hallet visited their parents for a few hours on Sunday.
Mrs. Myers, who is in her 90th year had the misfortune to fall and break her leg on Friday. We are all very sorry to hear of this accident. It always means a lot of suffering for an old person to break a limb.

BOWSER SALE NETS $11,203
Despite the early winter storm that blocked many country roads in the district, the dispersal sale of the Holstein herd of John W. Bowser, Newmarket, was a decided success with the 68 head sold bringing $11,205, the 40 cows and bred heifers averaging $230. Top price of $350 was reached twice, by a five-year-old cow and by the herd-sire, Humbercrest Echo Pietje, who is out of an 800 lb. fat dam. He went to Highland Lake Farms, Richmond Hill. Several other cows brought from $275 to $310. A great attraction was the group of 18 daughters of Eaton Hall Abbecker, mostly bred heifers, that sold from $175 to $290. Yearlings averaged $115 and calves $72. The auctioneer was A. B. Brubacher, Bridgeport, with Lloyd Shantz, Breslau, assisting in the ring.

Horse admirers will be glad to learn that there will be a horse show in connection with Stouffville Christmas fair Dec. 22.

ANNUAL MEETING
Take Notice that the annual meeting of the North York Plowmen's Association will be held at the residence of Walter Woods, Yonge St., Aurora, on Thursday, Dec. 10, 1942, at 8 p.m. All parties interested please take notice.

Major L. J. Stiver is Promoted
The announcement has been made of the promotion to the rank of major of Capt. L. J. Stiver, C.S.O. 2, in charge of operations at Camp Borden. He has been on headquarters staff at Camp Borden since February, 1941, when he was seconded from his active service unit, the Irish Regiment, as C.S.O. 3, in charge of weapon training.

A native of Mount Albert district, where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Stiver reside in East Gwillimbury, he attended public and high schools there, and graduated in arts from McMaster University. He enlisted in the 48th Highlanders in 1925 and was commissioned in the 1st Battalion, Canadian Machine Gun Corps, three years later. In 1937 he transferred to the Cameron Highlanders of Ottawa, but the following year, upon his return to Toronto, he joined the Irish Regiment.
He was one of the first to enlist for active service in Toronto, being called up on August 26, 1939, and he was sent to the R.C.A.F. station at Camp Borden on a guard detachment. He rejoined the Irish when that unit was mobilized in June, 1940, but was seconded eight months later. In civilian life he was an agency assistant with an insurance company.
