AID TO RUSSIA FUND GETS A LOCAL BOOST

The women of the Stouffville War Branch are offering tickets for sale on a handsome quilt now on exhibition in the store of Mr. Harry Golden. The entire proceeds of the sale will be turned over to the Aid to Russia Fund, and we hope it will be a substantial sum. Parties who do not care to buy tickets on the draw, and who would like to make a special donation to this worthy object may do so by turning in their money to any member of the branch who will see to it that the amount reaches the treasury.

Just now we can think of no more worthy thing to do than to help Russia fund. Those people have helped us plenty, and our comfort able homes and surroundings have been boldly protected by our Russian ally, so let us help them in sending medicine, blankets, and other relief goods so sorely needed. Canada is out to raise a million dollars. You'll feel better if you have a share in the effort.

CAN'T RUN INTO TRAINS

People can't run into railway trains and get away with it. The Grand Trunk Western sued a truck driver for running into one of their trains on the company's Chicago to Montreal run. A court gave the company damages of $1,966.

MAILING LIST CORRECTED

Subscribers should consult the label on their paper, as all corrections have been made up to renewals received last Thursday. Whether you have renewed your paper or not refer to the label which should show the date your subscription expires. These are very carefully checked and if an error occurs we want to know. With nearly two thousand names to look after, the task is quite large. Subscribers will confer a favor if they just check the label and report any errors. Subscriptions should be paid in advance. The rate is $2 per year any where in Canada, and $2.50 in the U.S.A.

Lorraine Vanzant An Evening Bride

An interesting evening wedding was solemnized on Saturday, January 7, at the home of the bride's mother, 12 Somers avenue, Toronto, when Lorraine McKay Vanzant, daughter of Mrs. Vanzant and the late Leonard Vanzant, became the bride of David John Addie, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Addie of Milliken. Rev. C. E. MacLeod of Stouffville tied the nuptial knot.

Attired in a white satin costume and bridal veil, the bride was given in marriage by her brother Bill Vanzant. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. Miss Kathleen Vanzant, sister, was bridesmaid, and wore a dress of yellow organdie. Mr. R. J. Addie of Milliken was the groomsmen. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Clarke and the home was artistically decorated with spring flowers.

At the reception later both mothers received, and following the wedding luncheon the couple left on their honeymoon. The bride wore a fur coat with matching hat.

Uxbridge Council Opening Session

The inaugural meeting of Uxbridge Township Council was held on Monday, with the elected members all present, namely: Edgar Johnson, reeve, Walter Beach, deputy reeve, Stuart Ball, Harold Dickinson and John M. Rae, as councillors, all of whom were re-elected by acclamation, and took the oath of office before Clerk H. Roach.

The Rev. Wm. Kendall, upon the invitation of the Reeve, came before the Council and gave them a splendid address, referring back to very early dates from which our present councils originated, even to and before the Anglo-Saxon race in England. Mr. Kendall, concluded by reading a portion of scripture, offering prayer, conveying a few words of advice, and complimenting them on the work they had done the previous year.

On motion of Mr. Beach, the Reeve conveyed to Mr. Kendall the thanks of the Council.

A letter was received from Walter Davey of Toronto, also several requests for grants were considered by Council. Some grants were made for patriotic purposes.

Markham Man Killed by Streetcar

Walter Henley, 26, of Dublin Street, Markham, was almost instantly killed, and his sister-in-law, Mildred Henley, 26, also of Markham, was injured when their motor car collided with a street car on Queen Street, in Toronto, between Greenwood Avenue and Knox Avenue.

Henley was pronounced dead on admission to the emergency ward of St. Michael's Hospital. His sister-in-law was removed to East General Hospital. She suffered a fractured spine.

Pine Orchard

Mr. and Mrs. A. Allen of Stouffville were Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brandon Jr., also Miss Radford of Newmarket.

Our sympathy is extended to Mrs. Fred Reid in the death of her grandmother in Markham recently.

Mr. Percy Hutchinson spent a few days in London attending a John Deere Tractor Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Brandon sr. have returned home after spending a week with their son Dean and family in Guelph.

Miss Ramsey of Toronto visited Mr. and Mrs. Chapman.

We were sorry to learn the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Mel. Lehman, now living in Hamilton developed pneumonia and passed away at the tender age of two months. Our sympathy is extended to the family.

A great many in the community are suffering from colds and all are looking forward to a January thaw. Old man winter sure is on the job this year, keeping us busy shovelling snow and tending fires.

SHORT COURSE IN RATCLIFF'S HALL

The two-day Short Course in farm mechanics being held this Thursday and Friday in Stouffville, under the sponsorship of the Ontario Dept. of Agriculture will be in Ratcliff's Hall. Classes open at 10 a.m. Big attendance is recorded at these meetings held in the north. We hope Stouffville will top them all.
