A former member of our community was laid to rest Saturday afternoon, in the person of Mr. John Rowbotham. Sympathy of the community goes out to his family. There was a large number of ladies at the quilting last Tuesday afternoon, when three quilts were finished for the Russian Relief Fund. The War Workers are holding a quilting in the work room on Wednesday, February 17. All the ladies of the community are invited. The regular monthly meeting of the W. A. will be held on Wednesday evening, Feb. 17, at 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Dalton Rummy.

All the conveners are asked to be present in order to outline their work. Will the ladies kindly bring needle and thread to make quilt blocks. A number from our community attended the Sunday School Convention last Thursday. Everyone reports a lovely time. The messages were very inspiring at all services. Miss Marion Smith spent the weekend at her home here. There were eight young people who braved the storm Sunday evening, to attend the Y.P.U. The Scripture was given by Grace Boynton, a reading by Mrs. Millicent Avison, topic by Rev. H. J. MacKay. The service was in charge of Miss Doreen Klinec. Next Sunday evening the topic will be given by Mrs. Millicent Avison.
