 Sorry to report that Mrs. (Dr.) Darling is ill and we are hoping for her recovery to normal health again soon.
 The very wet weather here has kept the farmers and gardeners back from getting their seeds planted. Several plots and fields ready to sew but weather too wet.
 Mr. Daniel Baker spent Sunday in Hamilton.

We are proud to have one of our Goodwood boys picture on the front page of this edition this week. The picture is none other than that of Ken Stewart who is now located at Deepbrook, N.S. Best of luck Ken.
 The two young boys of our town Mr. Isaac Shaver and Mr. Daniel Baker went sporting up to Scotia Jet. last Monday and did not return until Wednesday night. We haven't heard yet how many fish they caught or deer they shot but expect to have that for next week.
 Mr. and Mrs. William Bryant have moved into the Forsythe hotel, now owned by Mr. Thomas Baston, and are taking care of Mr. Baston, who knows there is no place like Goodwood and your own home.
 Pte. Harvey Feasby, who has been on furlough for a couple of weeks is visiting friends in St. Catharines before returning to Ottawa on Wednesday.
 Sympathy is herein extended to Mr. J. F. Reid, as Mr. Reid's brother, Mr. Wellington Reid was buried last Wednesday at Bracebridge. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. motored to that town to be present at the funeral, which was one of the largest ever seen in

Proclamation

MAY 24 A PUBLIC HOLIDAY
 In pursuance of a largely signed petition from the business men of the town, and in response to a resolution of the Council of the Village of Stouffville, I hereby proclaim Monday, May 24, a public holiday for the village of Stouffville for the year 1943.
 And I call upon all citizens to take due observance to the same.
 By order,
 A. E. Weldon, reeve.

JEAN PUGH IS BRIDE OF JOHN COLLEY

A pretty and interesting wedding ceremony was performed at Bethel Chapel, Toronto, last week when Hazel Jean Pugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pugh, east of Stouffville, became the bride of John Walker Colley, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Colley, Fleetwood, Lancashire, England. Rev. G. W. Johnson was the officiating minister, Miss Marlon Reinhart, Stayner, acted as bridesmaid and Donald Pugh as best man.
 The bride was becomingly attired in a pretty dress of powder blue crepe with contrasting navy accessories. She wore a corsage of roses. The bridesmaid wore a rose crepe dress with brown accessories, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Ellis Degeer, Toronto, was the organist.
 After the ceremony the couple left on a brief honeymoon to be spent in Brantford. Many friends and relatives who witnessed the ceremony extended sincere congratulations to the young couple. The groom is attached to the staff of the military hospital at Camp Borden and will resume his duties there.

Bracebridge.
 Our Y.P.S. will present their play, "A Pair of Country Kids," at Vandorf church on Tuesday, May 18th. All roads lead to Vandorf, where a good time is in store. Tickets are being sold on a certain draw and the proceeds will go to provide for their soldier boys boxes. This is indeed a worthy cause and our Y.P.S. would be pleased to see many followers from home.
