Pte. Ross Knox and wife, who has been home on leave, spent a few days at the latter's home with Mr. and Mrs. Bristol McGucken. They were calling on friends, when the boys took advantage of this and gave them a few musical numbers on the "horse fiddle" and cans.

Candidates in Town

Both H. J. McConnell, Liberal candidate, and John A. Leslie, Conservative candidate, York East, were in town on Tuesday, contacting their workers and the newspaper office where they were making arrangements for their advertising space. Both these candidates are big husky fellows, and would look well on the platform. If the public fail to attend the meetings properly in these busy times, we can make one suggestion for a packed house or packed arena, and that is a joint meeting. While we are at it, why not call in Agnes Macphail the C.C.F. candidate to oppose the old party standard-bearers.

Altona

Miss Barbara Barkey is spending a week at Muskoka.

We are sorry that Master John Thompson had the misfortune to break a couple of bones in his wrist.
