Miss Elsie Hoover is one of the instructors. Those in attendance at the Stayner Camp and Youths' Conference include: Mr. Simeon Hoover and Miss Martha, Willard and Lillian Moyer, Lloyd and Betty Wideman, Alice Barkey and the Eby young people. The community was shocked to learn of the sudden passing of Mrs. E. Cooper, sister of Mrs. B. Lewis. Our sympathy is extended to the bereaved family. Miss Jean Scott of the Department of Agriculture, Toronto, and Miss I. Webster of Uxbridge, were in this vicinity last Thursday afternoon judging the girls gardens. Forgetting much of what he learned in the last war on how to ford a stream, we hear that Dr. H. B. Freely fell into the creek out our way and "enjoyed" the enforced ducking.

Cow and Calf Sell For $195

A Holstein cow sold for $175 and her calf $17 was the high price obtained at a public auction by Clarke Prentice, auctioneer, down on the T. L. Wilson farm, at Whitevale, last Saturday. Those who went from town said the prices were skyward. The herd of milking cows ran from $150 to $160 each, while yearling cattle went at $60 to $70 a head in lots of three and two. Another feature of the auction was the price of calves. Little critters only four or five days old were snapped up at $12 and $14. Brood sows changed hands without a grunt at $67 with their piglets. The entire sale totalled $7,500. The crowd was large, and bespeaks another big crowd for this Saturday at the Gooderham sale at Oriole.

Mr. Blakeney was Sunday guest with Mr. and Mrs. James Oliver. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford, and Mr. and Mrs. George Richardson, motored to Milford Bay this week to attend the auction sale of the late Annie S. Curtis. Mr. Crawford was looking after affairs in the estate since his mother-in-law, Mrs. Graham is the executrix. We wonder if the men will take time off for a fish in those attractive waters of the Bay. The Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Carr last week with a splendid attendance. A very profitable meeting was enjoyed, Misses Betty Hope and Audrey Sproton sang, accompanied by Mrs. Hope of Pine Orchard; Miss Betty Hope gave an instrumental. Our hostess
