

Local and Personal Happenings

Miss Evelyn Rusnell returned last week from a visit on Manitoulin Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Borinsky who have been holidaying in Muskoka for two weeks have returned.

The only time I ever heard my husband say "well done" is when he orders a steak in a restaurant, said a woman the other day.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Atkinson have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Atkinson in town, and other relatives in the Township of Whitechurch where Mr. Atkinson was born. He left here with his parents 65 years ago when they located in the Stayner district.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stouffer, and Mrs. Peter Lehman spent a few days at Woodland Beach, Georgian Bay. They were staying with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hargrave and family who have a cottage there. Mrs. Stouffer and Mrs. Hargrave are sisters.

The entire household effects, bedding, linens, rugs, etc., the accumulation of a lifetime, will be sold this Thursday afternoon, all the estate of the late Mrs. Levi Hoover. The sale will be held at the home on Main street near the C.N.R. crossing, and will commence at 1.30 o'clock.

Mr. Hugh Bannerman has rented Mrs. D. Snider's attractive residence almost across from his store. The Five to a Dollar man will move in this fall. Owing to delicate health Mrs. Snider is compelled to give up housekeeping and relax in a way she has never done before all her life. She will take up residence with Mrs. J. H. Silverthorn. Since locating in Stouffville, Mr. Bannerman and his sister have occupied the Forsyth residence on Church street.

Charlie Vanzant, born and raised on the farm south of town on the 10th concession, is in town after several years absence since his last visit. He is in the wholesale boot and shoe business, since he sold his retail store at Banff. He might have almost slipped by some of his boyhood chums since the years have brought changes in all of us, but he had only to stop his friends when they realized the personage. Mr. Vanzant is a reader of The Tribune which finds its way to him in the "rodeo" city every week.

Downs Own Townsmen
Ed. Wurm of Markham, with his rink, Gordon Brown and John Bayles came out on top at the recent men's trebbles tournament on Stouffville greens, thereby wrestling the silverware from a Markham rink which held it last year. It is regarded as quite an honor to win this Stouffville Old Boys' trophy presented by F. L. Buxton and Dr. G. Richardson. While it returns to Markham, it will adorn a different home in the community. Dr. Brereton's rink from Newmarket won second; Ed. Goodman's, Oshawa, third, and D. Dunsire's rink from Uxbridge won the remaining prize. There were 20 entries.

Still Playing Ball
Bill Clark, former pitcher and utility man for Stouffville O.B.A. baseball teams of a few years back, is still in the game, and making quite a name for himself at that. Bill, one of the most popular players to don a local uniform hailed from Uxbridge where he operated a garage business. He's still in the garage business, now at Brantford, and is playing second base for the Galt Intermediate A team. Last year William coached a group of youngsters along in the junior series and went through to a championship, and when this season rolled around he was himself picked off by the city nine.

Local Boys in Sicilian Campaign

A letter written by Gnr. Chas. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Davis of Stouffville, arrived from Sicily only a couple of weeks after it was written. Even at that time, Charles states everyone felt the campaign would shortly draw to a close. His letter in part was as follows:—

"Haven't received any mail now for over three months. Where we shall go from here no one seems to know. Boy! it sure is hot down here, and I'll sure be glad to get home again. We get lots of fresh fruit and vegetables, lemons, melons and lots of olives and almonds right off the trees."

Gnr. Davis went overseas with an R.C.A. unit last year, but no word has been received from him now for some time. He enlisted from Stouffville and spent some months at an army trade school at Cornwall before being moved to England.

"We were just one month less three days on the water going from England to Sicily," writes Morley Pugh to his parents in a letter reaching here this week. Morley who is a sergeant said he found the Island very primitive, but the fresh fruits were great. Oranges, figs, and bananas were just ripening, he said. Although the voyage was long there was plenty of pork and eggs, something the soldiers were not getting in England before they left, he said, and of course it was a great treat.

Jack Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Blake Sanders of Stouffville, who is with the R.C.A.F. in North Africa, and according to latest word received here has been taking part in the Sicilian campaign just completed.

Miss Evelyn Rusnell has returned home after spending two weeks vacation visiting friends and relatives at Manitoulin Island and Sudbury.

Mrs. Robt. Ramsay of Toronto, is spending a holiday with her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. Tarr, east end.

Folks on Church street intend to do their part to keep the home fires burning this winter. We hear that Harry Ratcliff has orders for 36 cords on that street alone.

The Brierbush Hospital has been treated to a few coats of golden brown paint that suits the woodwork of the place admirably, and leaves the premises spick and span.

Mrs. T. W. Klnck returned to town on Saturday after spending ten days with her daughter near Peterborough.

Dr. John Button of Stouffville, who has been stationed for some time with the R.C.A.F. at Winnipeg, and returned there just recently from a holiday here, has been transferred to a station at Souris, near Brandon.

Jack Barkey, engineer in the Canadian Navy is home from Halifax for a couple of weeks visiting his family. Jack says the Yankees give the Canadian Navy lads a wonderful welcome when they dock at New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gibner have returned to town to take up residence here again, and have secured half the double house on Main street, owned by Mrs. Brownsberger. The Gibners have been living at Dickson Hill, and Mr. Gibner is working at Ajax.

Flt. Lieut. Jackie Rae of Toronto, has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. Local folks may recall Jackie, who is a well-known boy entertainer and delighted Stouffville audiences on the xylophone at several Dominion Day concerts. He is flying now with the R.C.A.F. and has several enemy planes to his record.

Is Your Name Printed There?
The voters' lists for the village of Stouffville has been issued for 1943, and a copy hangs in the post office and in the office of the municipal clerk. A legal notice in this issue calls upon every ratepayer to examine the said list to see that his or her name is properly recorded. This is a duty devolving upon us, and it is well to look after it.

A new CBC news broadcast was inaugurated on Tuesday evening of last week entitled, "News from Occupied Europe." The new series which goes on the air over CBL each Tuesday night at 10.15 p.m. immediately following the national news bulletin, is handled by Gerald Noxon who is a frequent visitor to Stouffville, his brother K. F. Noxon occupying a farm on the 6th con. of Markham near Cashel.

Returns After 29 Years
Friends, in and around Stouffville, who have lived here over thirty years, had extreme pleasure last week in renewing their acquaintances with John Yake who used to live at the corner of Tenth and Main streets. He started his teaching career at Altona school, then stepped along to an Inspectorship in the Western province. When the government changed some fifteen junior inspectors had to seek other jobs. John became principal of Saskatoon High School and has stayed with it for twenty years. He hasn't been back to Stouffville for twenty-nine years, but to look at him it seems hard to believe, as the years have made no change in him. His mother, over eighty, lives alone at Oyen, Alberta, and is a constant reader of The Tribune. Muriel, a sister, lives in the same town as her mother. Wellington, a brother, farms about twenty miles away. Two other sisters, Anna and Harriet (Mrs. Walter Wright) also live in the vicinity. All the family are married.

Mrs. Wm. Griffith and Myrtle, are in Brantford for a weeks vacation visiting relatives.

Mrs. Robt. Young has returned to her home on Church street, after visiting friends at Melville for a few days.

Hilda Elson, 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Elson, town-line west, is carrying an arm in a sling, as a result of a break when she fell from a teeter.

Harvest is over for this year on a good many farms in this district, but bumper crops of other years have not been reported. The feed shortage for cattle and hogs may be critical enough next winter.

Rubberized tape and rubber panties for youngsters are among the latest articles banned from manufacture, according to Wartime Prices and Trade Board. It may be in order to now assume that rubber has siffuck "bottom."

Four nights this week the stirring British drama, "In Which We Serve" is playing at the Stanley Theatre here. Written and portrayed by Noel Coward, this is a top-notch picture of the year, and is being held over for an extra night to give one and all an opportunity of seeing it.

We have received a fine response to our request of a few weeks ago, for pictures of local boys in the armed services. We would still like to receive some of the interesting letters which must be arriving daily from our boys overseas.

Since the beginning of time the apple tree somehow seems to have been connected with man's downfall, and to continue the historic connection, one of the more youthful town parsons fell from an apple tree last week, and received quite a bump, but received no broken bones we are glad to report.

Recent visitors in town with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Pugh were their daughters, Mrs. Stan. Thompson, Brantford, and Mrs. Wilton Dixon of Bowmanville. Hardy Thompson, son-in-law was also here from Lethbridge, Alta., where he is busy training recruits for bomber work.

Please Return That Parcel
A peculiar incident is revealed to have occurred at the Dominion Stores on Friday morning when a parcel of groceries just purchased by George Brown of Glasgow, were carried off by a lady who was accompanied by two little girls. In Mr. Brown's parcel was butter, sugar, tea, lemons, etc., mostly rationed goods, which makes the loss harder. After paying for the groceries he had the clerk write his name on the parcel and left it on the counter to be picked up by him later. When he came back it was gone, and it is said the lady was the only customer in the store during the short period Mr. Brown left the parcel there. Probably it was only a mistake, and could easily be, in which case restitution will be promptly made.

Holidaying in Muskoka
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ratcliff and Howard, motored to camp at Canadian Keswick where that great gathering of people has been holding forth for so long. Owing to the crowd the Ratcliffs had to find sleeping accommodation at Port Carling some miles from Canadian Keswick. Mr. Ratcliff sensed a deep and sincere undertone among the people, and noted that in the whole throng there was never a cigarette or pipe to be seen. One man, it was said, who came with a pipe, put it away as no one else used one in the place. Enroute to Muskoka Mr. Ratcliff, who would be expected to take careful note of the forest lands and timber, was shocked to see a great blight starting everywhere in the stands of white pine. He reported the condition to the Forestry Dept. to learn that they are alive to the situation and are taking steps to combat it.

WED IN ENGLAND

Dvr. and Mrs. Douglas Sheridan were married in St. John's church, Bethel Green, London, Eng., on March 28. Dvr. Sheridan is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sheridan, Whitechurch Twp. and his bride was the former Eileen McGhee of London, Eng.

Misses Bertha Stouffer, Evelyn Rusnell and Vera Tarr spent a week end recently in Toronto and enjoyed a boat trip to Niagara Falls on Saturday, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Bean of Toronto.

Ronald Warriner is recovering from a nasty case of blood poisoning in one hand, the result of a cut. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Warriner, works for the westend butcher shop and carries a paper route.

Sam Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Anderson of Stouffville, who is serving with the Army Service Corps, completed a ten-day leave here during the weekend, and on his return to his Nova Scotia post, expects to be ordered to Cape Breton for further training.

Horse Dead from Lockjaw
A heavy gelding owned by Earl Keith who occupies the former Sandy Jones farm in town, is dead as a result of lockjaw. It is believed the trouble developed from a foot injury, which however is not quite clear. The poor beast after the seizure was so famished for water that it would stick its head right down into the pail of water, but couldn't take a drop. Fortunately it soon fell dead.
