Mr. Alger Maye is assisting his father with the work for a couple of weeks.

ALTONA

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Elson to our community.

Mr. Fred McNair and Charlotte Ann, called on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McNair on Sunday afternoon.

The cider mill is still running at top speed, they certainly are favored with the continued mild weather and no doubt a good many appreciate the valued service of making use of the excess when other material is scarce.

A number of men in our community have gone on their annual deer hunt in the northern district. We wish them luck with good weather.

In spite of the unfavorable weather conditions a good number attended the W. I. pot-luck supper on Friday evening last. The entertainment of various musical numbers showed skill of the artists and Mr. Goddard of Claremont, assisted on the program with various readings of high quality which were enjoyed. An interesting feature at the close of the program was when the president Mrs. W. Carter announced the intention of the W.I. buying a Victory Bond and a motion was made and carried to that effect. Mr. Goddard soon had it completed.
