But tears through many a long night wept,
And loving remembrance fondly kept,
Lovingly remembered by Sister and Brothers.

WATER CORE PREVENTED

had confused water core with black rot. Black rot is much too prevalent in the district this year. Much publicity was given in the spring for the treating of turnip seed for the prevention of black rot and those who did not treat, in many cases, have turnips that are badly affected. Black rot usually works down from the top and forms black streaks through the turnips and anyone checking on the sprayed fields should not confuse this with water core.
There were some very interesting observations made on turnip varieties. In every case where Laurentians were sown almost 100 per cent were suitable for shipping. In the other fields less than 20 per cent would make shippers. Many of the older varieties which have gained much favour amongst turnip growers are not as good quality as these varieties once represented. The turnips grow much rougher than they used to and these do not make good shippers.
The fact that an insurance against water core has been found and the practice proven should mean that Bruce County will continue to participate in the large business that has been built up. Many other similar districts in the province have been built up in previous years only to lose their trade due to the increasing prevalence of water core. From observation it seems that all that is necessary is one thorough spraying when the turnips are from one to two inches in diameter. The spray consists of 8 lbs. Borax, 2 lbs. Bentonite clay, 1/2 pint orvus, mixed in 40 gallons water which is sufficient for one acre.

Ontario County over-subscribed their objective in the Victory Loan. 23,000 residents of the county made purchases.

TRACTORS AND PLOWS HOLD AT GOOD PRICES
At the auction sale in Whitechurch of the late John Nicely estate the tractor and plow together realized $500. The tractor went to a buyer from near Langstaff, but the plow was purchased by Mr. Sam Fretz for $151. That is just a few dollars from the price Mr. Nicely paid for it several years ago new. However, new ones cannot be readily purchased and are listed at $150. Hence while the auctioneer made a good sale, the buyer also made a good buy.

Red Cross Notes
We gratefully acknowledge Mrs. Wm. Ratcliff, 1 quilt; Mrs. MacLeod 1 quilt; Mrs. C. D. Pipher, quantity of clothing; Mrs. Geo. Myland, quantity of clothing. Volunteer knitters are needed to make 25 pairs seamen's long stockings; also 25 pairs seamen's 1 1/2-inch socks.—Mrs. Roy Grove.

Sunday School Lesson

and "his wife" constituted the family as instituted by God.

Verse 8—"They are no more twain but one flesh." Two individuals who have hitherto lived their lives apart, become one in this new relationship, which the Apostle Paul tells us was intended by God to picture the relationship of Christ and the Church.

Verse 9—"What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder." For any man or any body of men to presume to lay down rules whereby this relationship may be ended at the will of one who has failed to find in his companion the satisfaction he had hoped for is to thwart the divine authority and to act on the presumption that marriage is simply a civil contract rather than a divine institution.

Verse 10—"In the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter." To them, as to the Pharisees, His teaching seemed to be revolutionary. They had never thought of it as so binding a relationship as He had indicated.

Verse 11—"Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her." Our Lord laid down a clear, definite principle. Marriage is for life. To violate one's marital vows is grave sin. Therefore, to put away one's wife, in order to take some later favorite, is wickedness in the sight of God and a violation of the Seventh Commandment. In Matthew 19:9 Jesus makes one notable exception. If one has already broken the tie by committing fornication, this leaves the innocent party free, as though not married at all. But the fact that only in this instance is one said to be free to marry another should make one very careful not to try to trump up some charge against an otherwise faithful partner in order to displace her by a more pleasing woman.

Verse 12—"And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery."
