Many of our Canadian boys like you have given up the comfort of their homes, businesses and jobs to go on active service, because they want their brothers and sisters their parents, their wives and family to go on living in the future by the principles of British justice and Christianity, to enjoy the freedom of institutions, government, speech and press, without which our lives would not be worth living.

Were we in your position we would do likewise but since that is not possible, we ask you to accept these gifts as token of our love.

Signed on behalf of the Community, the Womens' Institute and the Sunday School. Wm. Reesor, Mrs. Walter Carter, Millard Reesor.

PULLETS Mixed Chicks COCKERELS

Hybrids and Straight Varieties

NOW IS THE TIME TO ORDER YOUR

Seiling Baby & Started Chicks

One of These Varieties Will Exactly Meet Your Requirements

Sussex and Hampshire

(Hybrids) The most outstanding general purpose Fowl today, very hardy and beautiful; they lay like Leghorns but with none of the attending winter mortality; Cockerels weigh up to 10 lbs. at maturity, Hens 7-8 lbs.

Rock and Hampshire

(Hybrids) A variety popular in this section since hybridizing became popular, because of their vigor, high production of large eggs and splendid meat qualities; Cockerels weigh up to 9 lbs., Hens 7-8 lbs.

Hampshire and Rocks

(Hybrids) A cross which gives you black Pullets with gold lacing, very high egg production and a good market fowl. Like all the other Hybrids are unusually hardy and vigorous.

Leghorn and Hampshire

(Hybrids) A uniting of these two breeds gives you in a vivid form these characteristics, fast feathering and growth in the young stock, followed by machine-like production in the laying pen of the largest eggs with a minimum of laying pen mortality.

Minorca and Leghorn

(Hybrids) A business Hen with the stamina and body weight to 'carry on'; very prolific producers, snow-white with an occasional black feather, eggs white and large; weight 1-1 1/2 lbs. more than average Leghorns.

New Hampshire

Seiling's are Canada's largest breeders of this bird having started years ago with genuine CHRISTIE STOCK. Unlike some strains Seiling Hamps are a good market fowl.

Barred Rocks

An old reliable variety, doubly reliable when produced by Seiling. Seiling Rocks are outstanding in the laying pen, in the show or on the butcher's block.

White Leghorns

A flock of well reared Seiling Leghorns are the most beautiful sight to be seen in any farm yard. In the pen they will give you as many and as large eggs as any strain in Canada, bar none.

YOUR GUARANTEE

We guarantee 100% live delivery and chicks to be satisfactory on arrival; 90% accuracy in sexing, your count at 21 days of age on top grade chicks, all adjustments made in cash without red-tape or argument. We pay transportation charges to your depot again this year.

SHIPPING DATES

Demand for Seiling Chicks has been very heavy to date and 50% of all chicks available are now booked, hence the necessity of ordering immediately to secure a shipping date.

BROODER COAL

The Hatchery requires that persons using coal for brooding must have their fuel supply arranged for before placing an order for chicks.
