ALMIRA

Mrs. Chas. Conner entertained a few neighbors to a quilting bee one day last week.

The big snow storm last Friday made a good covering for the wheat, even if some people did have trouble getting their cars out of the garage next morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Painter, Jr. of Peaches, had supper Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stickle.

Mr. Herb. and Jim Jarvis and Miss Rene Timbers of Agincourt, called on Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jarvis on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Conner spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Logan of Milliken.

Mrs. Willis Lehman spent Friday with Mrs. Ward Hallman.

Little Miss Patsy Smith of Cashel, entertained Miss Marjorie and Marion Conner to a birthday party one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Valliere spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Willis Lehman.

REPORT OF YEAR'S WORK IMPRESSIVE

At the recent annual meeting of Stouffville Red Cross reported in our last issue it was shown that 68 Christmas boxes had been forwarded to members in the various services at a cost of $110.15. The Society made $40 from a tea held at the bowling green, and received donations of $72.67, so a small cash balance was reported. 471 knitted articles, 546 garments, and 49 quilts and afghans sent out by the Society. Mrs. James Ratcliff is convener of knitting committee and Mrs. T. B. Rae for the sewing committee.

2nd LINE UXBRIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cooper visited at the Albert Taylor home on Sunday.

Miss Elsie Hockley spent a few days at the Chas. Forsyth home.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. J.B. Wagg has been in with a bad cold. We hope she is soon out around again.

GLASGOW

Glad to report Mrs. Walter Davis is improving, although somewhat slowly. Before these last snow storms came the mill pond was a favorite resort with a number of our young people displaying their ability on skates. One young fellow tired of his girl friend, found it a good place to let her slide. Our hunters Messrs Ed. and Hill Davis, Harry Noble and Geo. Alsop (who lives just outside the town limits) are out nearly every favorable day and as each of them is an expert with the gun, they literally make the fur fly. Their game is mostly foxes and a few of those nice little black animals with the white stripe. For the foxes they get a very good price this winter, and for the others they will get at least four quarters and several scents extra.

On Sunday, Feb. 13th a number of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brown's children and grandchildren gathered at their home here to wish him many happy returns as it was his seventy-seventh birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Brown and child from near Sutton; Mr. and Mrs. E. Ramer and two children from Markham, and Elmer from Toronto. He also received a number of birthday gifts. George as everyone calls him, is still quite active and gets a big kick out of a game of euchre or pitching horse shoes. Our wish is that he may live to enjoy many more of these happy family gatherings.

VICTORIA SQUARE

Snow! Snow! Beautiful Snow!

Who said Old Man winter was so slow Mr. Elmer Huggins spent Sunday with friends in Oshawa.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. MacKay had tea Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson and Mabel.

Congratulations were extended to Miss Peggy MacKay who sang beautifully over C.B.L. Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McRoberts and Miss Joan Paul had tea Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Boynton and family.

The regular meeting of the W.M.S. was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Louis Nichols. Reports were given by Mrs. R. Klinck, Mrs. McRoberts, and Mrs. McCague of the W.M.S. convention held in the Bloor Street United Church, a few weeks ago. Mrs. McCague and Mrs. Stanley Boynton sang a lovely duet, "O Lift Up Jesus." Following the meeting dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

We are looking forward to the pot luck supper in the United Church on the evening of Tuesday next week. This will be followed by a mock trail for which two brilliant lawyers are working hard. The ladies of the community are asked to bring the second course, cake and pastry, bread and butter. The group sponsoring the evening will take care of the first course. Supper 6 to 8, and of course the whole township is invited.

GOODWOOD

A call to arms goes out to the tin pan brigade.

A. B. Mather, student minister, spent the weekend at Chas. Watson's. One of our esteemed women Mrs. Freeman Slack has gone to Toronto to undergo an operation. We all hope for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. George Stewart has gone to Toronto to spend a few days. Miss Jessie Reid, Toronto, visited her parents here.

Mrs. Ernest Morgason was called to Toronto, owing to the illness of her mother there.

Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Beard were up to Canlington on Wednesday.

The L.O.L. ladies are busy planning for the Orange Walk to be in Goodwood this summer.

Jim Watson of Cornwall, and Dave Watson of Dodsland, Sask., twin sons of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Watson, old time residents here, are visiting relatives and friends around Goodwood.

The Goodwood War Workers gratefully acknowledge a number of quilts and knitting sent in from the Fifth Line community; knitting from Glen Major and Roseville; two quilt tops from Second-Line friends. The next packing will be Tuesday evening, Feb. 22nd in the Township Hall. Donations of any kind will be appreciated and may be left at Mrs. J. Rae's. Watch for further notice of the War Works coming event.

MELVILLE

The Melville United Church W.M.S. held its regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon last at the home of Mrs. T. Hobbs. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. A. J. Orr, and after the devotional and business period interesting addresses were given by Mrs. Nolan and Mrs. Williams, Stouffville, who gave very enlightening reports of the W.M.S., Presbyterial.

The World Day of Prayer held every year under the auspices of the W.M.S. will be observed this year in the Melville United Church at 2.30 p.m. The area covered by this meeting includes the churches of Bloomington, Ballantrae, Lemonville, Bethesda, Town Line Baptist, Peaches, and Melville.

The services in the United churches of this district on Sunday next will be of a special nature, when the Rev. Dr. Thomson, Toronto, and for 30 years a missionary in China will preach in all three churches.

Word has been received that LAC Arthur N. Orr, oldest son of Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Orr, received his wings on Friday last as Air Bomber at London, and at the same time he gained his commission of Pilot Officer.

BALLANTRAE

A very enjoyable evening was spent on Friday at Mr. and Mrs. Sam Irwin's, when some twenty neighbors gathered to celebrate Stanley's birthday. There was games and music, then lunch was served.

DICKSON HILL

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Barkey had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. C. Barkey of Dawes' Road.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Moyer spent an evening with Mr. and Mrs. A. Hoover last week.

Rev. M. Bricker, Presiding Elder, was in charge of the Quarterly Communion service here, on Sunday morning. The Mt. Joy congregation united with Dickson's Hill for the occasion.

Miss Myrtle Sider received the news of the safe arrival of her niece Mrs. Elgin Erubacker at the mission field in Nigeria, West Africa. The journey was made by plane.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moyer called on Mrs. Simeon Raymer at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Vernon Pike of Mt. Joy on Monday evening.

Mrs. Wm. Grove spent Saturday in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barkey invited the Young Peoples' Society to their home on Monday evening. The topic "Personal Evangelism" was ably taken by Mr. Paul Storms, The Mt. Joy male quartette sang "I've been Redeemed."

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hoover and Mrs. Tilman Reesor, attended the funeral of Mrs. J. E. Tully, aged 73 years, at the Markham Funeral Parlour last week. Interment was made in the Unionville Anglican cemetery. Many will remember Mrs. Tully as Miss Mabel Pingle, highly respected school teacher at Dickson's Hill about forty years ago. We extend our sympathy to Mr. Tully and his two daughters.

School was closed for a few days this week on account of Miss Stouffer's illness.

Dr. and Mrs. Rolph Hargrave and Donald of Toronto, spent the weekend at their country home here.

Because of snow-drifts, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Moyer were unable to reach their home last Friday evening and so were over-night guests at the Ken. Walker home.

8th Line MARKHAM

Miss Elva Wideman of Lincolnville spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. Greenwood.

Albert and James Robinson of Toronto, were recent visitors with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Grove attended the Silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Castor of New Hamburg last Saturday.

Old Man winter has arrived in earnest and we are reminded of the prediction of a local weather prophet made to us a few weeks ago when we were enjoying such balmy weather. Apparently he knows his weather.

Mr. Ed. Bauman is working at Almira making some improvements to the house which Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wideman intend to move to in the spring.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Wideman and other relatives in the passing of the former's sister, Mary Ida Wideman, wife of Abram S. Hunsberger of Waterloo at the Kitchener hospital on Saturday, Feb. 12th, aged 60 years. The deceased was well known to a host of friends in this community where she lived until the time of her marriage. A number of relatives and friends were in attendance at the funeral service which was held in the Waterloo Mennonite Church on Tuesday afternoon with interment in Waterloo cemetery.

YORK STUDIES LICENSING OF CITY DELIVERY TRUCKS

York County is considering the establishment of a licensing system for vehicles of large city firms which do not have their head offices in the county but which use county roads for the distribution of goods in direct competition with York County merchants. Reeve F. G. Gardiner revealed Saturday following a meeting of the special committee investigating the re-allocation of county roads.

"In answer to a demand from local merchants we have commenced an investigation into the use of York County roads made by large Toronto department stores, dairies, bakeries and other firms which use the roads for the distribution of their merchandise ordered by mail, phone or through local order offices," Mr. Gardiner declared.

"Hundreds of thousands of dollars in goods are distributed by Toronto firms over county roads, much to the detriment of the county merchants who bear the burden of taxation. These firms pay little if any business tax in the county," he continued.
