DICKSON HILL

A number of the neighbors have tapped a few maple trees. This is a sure sign of spring!

Miss Eleanor Moyer has arrived from Port Arthur for a visit at home.

Everyone was glad to see Mr. Simeon Hoover back to church on Sunday morning, after a winter's confinement in his home.

Mr. Abram Stouffer of Stouffville visited Mr. Simeon Hoover last Friday.

We extend a welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Wright who have moved into Alex. Jones' house, also to the Wilson family who have come to the farm formerly worked by the Redshaw family.

Sunday was a special Temperance Day. The Rev. Mr. Rivers of Richmond Hill spoke in the interest of the Ontario Temperance Federation, and Mr. Alex. Jones conducted an object lesson after the Sunday School period.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Wideman welcomed the Mt. Joy and Dickson's Hill Young People's Society to their home last Monday evening for a time of fellowship. There was a splendid attendance, and we wish to welcome them all to our regular meetings.

Despite the inclement weather, there was a good crowd in attendance at the Abe Grove sale last Thursday. It's rather remarkable to note that this has been the fifth auction sale in this community held by Mr. Farmer since last October, namely—Redshaw's, Davis', Mrs. S. Abell's, H. Moyer's, and lastly Ab. Grove's. It has been rumoured that Wes. Wideman is also giving up farming, but the report is false, we are glad to say.

Prof. J. C. Steckley and wife, also Miss Steckley, Toronto, were visitors at the Brierbush this week to see his mother who is a patient there.

PEACHES

Mr. Douglas Cleverdon is spending several weeks at his home before beginning his training in the Navy.

Mrs. Harry Warriner and Mrs. George Hoover attended the quilting bee at Mrs. J. Painter's at Al-mira on Tuesday.

Glad to report Mrs. Levi Grove is able to return to her home after spending a few days in a Toronto hospital, having her broken leg set in a cast. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. Warren Morris is busy boiling sap these days.

Miss Dorothy Hoover and Mrs. Henry Walker of Toronto, spent the weekend at the Hoover home.

Miss Vida Gowland of Toronto, was a Sunday visitor at the Cleverdon home.

Mr. J. W. Warriner of Markham, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. Warriner.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Reesor and family of Cedar Grove had Sunday supper at the Hoover home.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Smith and family were Aurora visitors with Mr. and Mrs. R. Chapman on Sunday.

ALTONA

The W. I. held a quilting bee at the home of Mrs. D. Crosier on Thursday.

Pte. Stanley Slack of Toronto, Mrs. Slack and Marilyn, Mr. and Mrs. W. Slack and Miss Slack of Stouffville were guests with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Slack on Sunday.

Wm. D. Malloy, R.C.A.F. of St. Thomas and Mrs. Malloy of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. W. Slack, Stouffville, and Mr. and Mrs. H. St. John, Gary and Diane were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Crosier on Sunday.

We are pleased to report that Mr. Delos Morris is much better in health.

Miss Lois Fretz visited her sister Alma at Fort Erie on Sunday.

Mr. A. Davis and Esther visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. McDonald of Kinsale on Sunday.

The T.S.C. will hold their March meeting at the home of Miss Grace Lehman on Friday, March 31.

The Sunday School was well attended on Sunday last. Mrs. C. Montgomery of Stouffville was the guest speaker and made it very interesting for all by presenting an illustrated Bible story.

The sap is in full run, and everyone is busy. We hope for a good season.

LAC Barbara Barkey has returned to Jarvis airport where she is stationed after spending a couple of weeks furlough with her brother in Kingston, Nova Scotia, and her parents here.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

It is felicitably reported that Mr. Frank Bruels, proprietor of the apartment on Church street, intends to build another house on the lot immediately west of the big residence which now houses four families, and was once the Burkholder residence.

Will Hear Missionary to China
Mrs. H. J. Mullett, wife of Dr. Mullett, recently returned from China on the Gripsholm, is to be the speaker at the Easter meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church, which will be held in the church basement on Thursday afternoon, April 6th, at 2.45 p.m. Mrs. Mullett is an outstanding speaker.

To be well thought of and highly esteemed in the home district and all over the country for that matter stands one in good stead when they sort of fall by the wayside as in the case of Rev. S. Goudie. Confined to bed with a fractured limb, he was almost as busy as ever last Sunday. Between ten and fifteen visitors from as far as Vineland, Owen Sound and Toronto called that day to wish him God speed on his journey back to health and strength.

MARKHAM AIRWOMAN WED
L.A.W. Dorothy Wideman, R.C.A.F., elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wideman of Markham, was married in a quiet ceremony in London, Ont., on March 16th, to LAC F. Wilcock, R.C.A.F., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilcock of Toronto. Rev. McLean was the officiating pastor.

BIRTH
LOVELESS— Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Loveless of Agincourt, announce the birth of their daughter, on March 23rd, 1944, a little sister for Jimmie, at the East General Hospital, Toronto. Mother and baby doing nicely.

The community join in many happy returns to Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Ramer on their wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Over of Toronto, were at Mr. W. Vaughan's on Sunday.

The remains of Mrs. Bacon of Toronto were interred in the cemetery here on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Bacon was the former Olive Cook and some years ago the family resided on the farm now owned by Mr. David Young.

Mr. N. Storry, Miss Graham and Miss M. Brown were visiting at Mr. and Mrs. J. Jackson's at Brampton on Sunday.

Mrs. Charlie Dadson received word this week of the death of her cousin—William—Lenard at Holt, at which place he has lived for many years. He was a bachelor and 50 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Lemon attended the funeral of his cousin, Mr. L.A. Pipher at Newmarket on Monday. The remains were interred in Bloomington cemetery.

The Sunday School classes of Mrs. C. Lemon and Mrs. G. Brown were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Lemon last Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Leask and family of Greenbank were with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fockler on Sunday.

We are pleased to report Mrs. E. Baker who is in Toronto General Hospital as a convalescent. She will soon be able to leave the hospital.

GOODWOOD
Dan Glover of Blackwater called on Isaac Shaver here the other day.

Audrey Peasby has resumed her position in the bank at Uxbridge after three weeks here with her parents.

Special Easter services are being planned at the United Church for Easter Sunday. It will be Mr. Mathers farewell and there will be baptismal service conducted by Rev. Mr. Davis of Stouffville.

On Friday about 60 friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ashenhurst to bid them farewell as they are leaving the old home on the 5th, to live in Uxbridge. A floor lamp was presented and a splendid address read by Mrs. Martin Gall. Unfortunately it couldn't be published in this issue because of the shortage of space.
