Just one year has passed since Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Stover received the word from the Air Ministry that their son, Serge Russell Robt. Stover "failed to return from air operations over enemy territory" and again six months later for "Official purposes presumed dead" but to them his next of kin "he lives". At this time they wish to thank their many friends for their kind expressions of sympathy and encouragement and for the many prayers for Russell that God might overrule for a safe return to them even yet. This is the wish of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Stover, Betty, Reta and Burton.

If I no more should waken on this earth,
To greet the daily miracle of dawn,
I shall have known much of deepest worth—
Then do not weep for me when I am gone;

High service has been mine, and prayer, and dreaming
Of that new world which sacrifice should bring;
Oh, I have soared to realms where stars are gleaming
And raced translucent clouds on silvered wing.

Bond Investment $18,000

Stouffville ought to receive reduced hydro rates before long. A substantial reduction in rates, having regard to the manner in which surplus earnings are growing, is the best argument for reduced rates. This cannot be accomplished without the consent of the H.E.P.C. in Toronto. Last year the town set aside $2,000 in bonds as a stabilization fund to be used in case we received an increase in power rate after the war, and now $1,000 additional is to be invested in bonds, thus adding to the present substantial investment in bonds of $17,000.

87th Birthday

Too young for Andy Clark's "Over 90 Birthday Club," Mrs. Lemon Baker on Wednesday this week reached her 87th year still quite active and keenly interested in all that is going on. Unfortunately her hearing is somewhat impaired, otherwise she would be about more. Living with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ratcliff, Mrs. Baker goes for a walk every day. She gets her Sunday sermons on the radio, although she was a pillar of the Baptist church for long years, and few people enjoyed entertaining friends more than Mrs. Baker when she was a bit more active than she is today. To prepare dinner for 15 or 20 was a thing of great joy for her. Friends everywhere will join us in wishing Mrs. Baker the best of health and contentment.
