He lost his left leg in a dogfight and was captured when his plane crashed. He was recently repatriated from a German prison camp. Morrison, 22, now has an artificial leg and the 80-minute workout in a Cornell plane showed little loss of skill. He is shown in flying gear, as he took the test.

Erin Man Pays $575 for Top Cow at Forsyth Sale

Auctioneer, Ted Jackson Sold $1,000 an Hour—Ken. Deacon, Unionville, Took Five Registered Animals.

Highlight of the big auction, sale of G. M. Forsyth at Claremont on Good Friday was the sale of registered Shorthorn cattle. Top price of $575 was paid by R. Fletcher of Erin, Ontario, for Lady Augusta, whose mother was an imported Augusta cow, bred by Lady Cathcart. The calf of this prize animal went to Arthur Percy, a local farmer for $155.

Ken Deacon of Unionville, bought five head at the sale, paying $300 for a heifer, the daughter of Lady Augusta, and the top price of $240 for a yearling heifer calf.

The registered cows averaged $229 and the thoroughbred calves, $135. A bid of $98 was taken on one lot of steers, while two from a second lot sold for $115 each. The highest price paid for grade cows was $127.50.

Horses which have been a slow seller at the bulk of the farm auctions this spring, all brought over $100 each, the best mare selling for $160 to Mr. Groat, Brooklin, while a bid of $175 was received for the stallion offered. The highest priced gelding went to Gordon Riddle for $145.

Bidding on a pen of pigs running about 70 pounds, was keen, and saw a price of $14.50 paid. A four-horse drill which Mr. Forsyth had bought for fifty odd dollars some years ago, realized $70 on Friday, while the land roller sold for $49. A quantity of hay brought $8 a ton.

While Mr. Forsyth had no large machines, such as tractor or threshing machine to offer, the sale tallied $7,800, the bulk of the money being paid for the registered stock. Mr. John Baker, Shorthorn Field representative from Durham County handled the pedigrees at the side of Ted Jackson, the Auctioneer. Despite the condition of the roads, one of the largest crowds to assemble at a sale this spring, was on hand, and brought buyers, from as far away as Peterboro, Bobcaygeon, Woodbridge and Bowmanville. Woodholme, which has been in the Forsyth family for many years, is still on the market and if Mr. Forsyth fails to contact a buyer before seeding time, some arrangements will have to be made to put in the crop.
