BAKER HILL
Miss Earlene Tate spent the weekend under the parental roof at Baker Hill, and a welcome surprise awaited both Earlene and Lloyd on her arrival home Saturday evening, when thirty-five young guests gathered to wish them "A Happy Birthday." After a hearty birthday luncheon prepared by the hostess, their mother. An evening brimful of music and fun was spent. Earlene and Lloyd were the recipients of a number of lovely birthday remembrances, to which they expressed their sincere thanks.

Walter Brown visited his brother Arthur over the weekend.
Mr. Harold Morgason has taken a position with Dean Wagg.
Mr. Joe Noakes and family are moving to their new home in Beaverton.
Mrs. Cherry visiting her mother, Mrs. J. O'Brien on the Fifth Line of Uxbridge.
Mr. Bristol McGuckin has his roof newly shingled and is now not afraid of the rain.
Little Glenda Taylor had the misfortune to sprain her arm. She was taken to Dr. Wilson's in Uxbridge and had it set and bandaged up.
Joe Forsyth who has rented the Jackson farm recently occupied by Ted Wagg is busy rushing in his seeding.
Miss Hill of Bloomington, who has been staying for several months with Miss Elderkins at Goodwood has returned to her Whitechurch home.
George Redshaw prominent and well known resident of the township has again been removed to the hospital where his condition is said to be better.

We all regretted very much that accident in Goodwood when Thos. Jennings of Stouffville was seriously injured when a branch of tree gave way 20 feet up where he was in the act of saving off a branch.
The 12th of July is growing closer all the time, but we understand the L.O.L. committee is very active right now in arranging for that great event to be celebrated in Goodwood this year.

70 persons attended the meeting of the Toronto East Rural Presbytery of the Y.P.S. held in the United Church, Goodwood, on May 3rd. The gathering was in banquet form when some 14 local unions were represented through the 70 persons present. Rev. J. Terry of Agincourt gave a challenging message using for his topic, "I Dare You." Stouffville provided the musical numbers when Stanley Schmidt rendered a saxophone number and Margaret Grubin and Earl Lehman a vocal duet. Rev. Ben. Garrett, student pastor at Goodwood, had charge of the service and conducted the induction ceremony of the new officers elected.

It is not very often we read of the passing of two sisters in the same house and on the same day but such occurred as Mrs. Mary Poole, widow of the late Enoch Lambkin, passed away in her 91st year, and forty minutes later Elizabeth Harper, also passed away in her 83rd year at their home in Utica.

Mrs. Lambkin (Mary Poole) was born at Nestleton in 1853, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Poole. For many years they farmed in Reach township where her husband predeceased her some forty years ago and thirty years ago she went to live with her sister, Mrs. Harper, at Utica. There were no children from the marriage. Elizabeth Poole was also born at Nestleton and in 1886 married the late Richard Harper, who predeceased her in 1935. For nearly fifty years they farmed near Utica. Left to mourn her death are three sons, Russell and Cecil of Utica; and Harry at home, and a daughter, Mrs. Clarence Gall, of Uxbridge.

HORSES KICK FATAL FEW ACCIDENTS REPORTED

Spring work on the farms brings its annual toll of accidents, although the local section has thus far nothing to report. Up Hanover way, an accident occurred on the farm of Herman Engel of Elmwood, which proved fatal to the Brant Twp. farmer, when he was kicked by a horse during seeding preparations.

Mr. Engel, it appears, was plowing a field when a trace of the harness broke, and while making repairs one of the horses launched out a vicious blow with its rear foot which struck the agrarian full in the chest. Almost helpless he succeeded in crawling to a knoll where he managed to attract two neighbors. The injured man was rushed to Hanover hospital where he died a few days later.

WOULD REVIVE LACROSSE

The Beaverton Express comments on the attendance of Peter McMillan at the reunion banquet in Toronto of old lacrosse players. The purpose of the gathering was to create a revival of lacrosse interest over Ontario among the young generation. The Beaverton paper says: "Mr. McMillan, who with his twin brother, Duncan are now past 83 years of age, were players of note in their young days having been members of the old "Checker" lacrosse team of Beaverton which was winner of the Ontario Lacrosse Championship in 1899. Peter reports a good time and having met many of his former team mates and opponents. Other members of the "Checkers" at that time were Col. H. S. Cameron, now at his farm home Simcoe Lodge, Beaverton, A. W. Talbot, of Toronto, who was also present at the banquet, Ken Davidson, A. West, Jas. Birchard, Beaverton."
It is interesting to note that another old Checker player, Benj. Coombe of Uxbridge who was with Beaverton the year they won the championship, had just passed away and was buried the day before the affair came off in Toronto.
