ALMIRA

Mrs. Painter was in Orillia last Thursday attending the funeral of her brother.

Mrs. Roy Nigh had the misfortune of falling from a stepladder one day last week and injuring her leg so that several stitches were necessary to close up the wound. We are glad to report she is coming along very well, and hope she will soon be around again as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jarvis spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jarvis of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Painter and son Murray of Peaches had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Painter sr.

BLOOMINGTON

Miss Welsh of Orangeville, was the guest of Miss Margaret Brown on the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Don. Story and children of Callander, were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. O. Trammer on Friday.

Mrs. R. Davis and children of Stouffville, were weekend visitors at the E. Davis home here.

Evangelist May was the speaker at the church service on Sunday morning. He also gave several vocal and accordion selections, all of which were very interesting and inspirational.

Congratulations to our publishers on receiving the Joseph T. Clark

ATHA NEWS

Haying is just around the corner, with a bumper cut in view.

Mrs. James of Toronto, is convalescing at the home of her daughter Mrs. Norman Lehman, and we are pleased to note her improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold and Carl were at Green River on Sunday visiting old friends.

Miss Minna Yake and Wesley, also Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carruthers and Ernie, were at Malton airport on Sunday. So far as we know they all kept their feet on the ground.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Draper and daughters, Miss Zellars and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Draper spent Sunday afternoon at Musselman's Lake. They say the sand is dreadful this year, since no oil is put on the roads.

We are proud to be associated with a paper that has won such high honors in the newspaper field as The Tribune. Congratulations to the publishers.

JUNIOR FARMERS PICNIC

York County Junior Farmers are looking forward to their annual Picnic and Dance which will be held as usual at Musselman's Lake on Friday, June 9th, and at least some of the local clubs are holding ball practice in preparation for the "mixed" softball tournament in the afternoon. At night Max Boag and his 10-piece orchestra will provide the music for the mammoth dance in the large air conditioned arena overlooking the lake.

Memorial Trophy for the best weekly newspaper published in towns of 1500 or less.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Ashenurst and Gloria, Bethesda, were guests with Mr. and Mrs. E. Fairles on Sunday.

Mrs. Tarr of Stouffville, spent last week with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. Lemon.

Traffic to Musselman's Lake is again growing intense. It would pay our council to oil the 9th con. throughout.

Congratulations

Among the messages pouring in from far and near offering congratulations to The Tribune on winning the Clark Trophy, we pass on the following to our readers in more or less condensed form:

Congratulations to The Tribune. I knew very well the donor of that Clark trophy. Gordon, Sinclair, world traveller, now of local radio fame.

Allow me to congratulate your paper, and I think it certainly deserved the honor accorded it. H. L. Trapp, Playfair & Co., Toronto.

Will you please accept the hearty congratulations of all of us here on your success in winning the trophy. Toronto Sales Books Limited.

Heartiest congratulations on again winning the Clark Memorial Trophy. You richly deserve it, too, as you are publishing a most excellent paper. We missed you at the Convention in Niagara. Frank D. MacIntyre, editor of the Dundalk Herald.

Dear Mr. Nolan

In Friday's Daily Star I noted your photograph and report that you have again been awarded the Memorial Trophy set up in memory of my late father. My older brother Greg Clark and my younger brother Arthur are, both overseas, and I know they would like me to write on my own and their behalf. Two awards in five years is a real achievement. Joseph W. G. Clark, with Dept. National Defence, Ottawa.

May I offer you my congratulations upon your receipt for the second time of the Joseph T. Clark memorial trophy for the best weekly newspaper in your class.

I have not always agreed with your editorial opinion but have appreciated for some time that you are making a very energetic contribution to public opinion in that part of the County of York which you serve.

F. G. Gardiner, Forest Hill Village
