$15,000 Wouldn't Buy Even a Half Interest in Famous Gormley Horse

Somebody is trying to induce Mr. Schelke to part with his famous horse, Shepperton according to newspaper reports, but if Mrs. Schelke and her daughter Mary out on the home acres at Gormley have anything to say about it, the sale is as good as off, and no money can buy the son of Sun Craig and Chatter. Mrs. Schelke made this quite clear to a reporter last week. She recalled how, an offer of $15,000 for a half interest in Shepperton was turned down by the Schelke family last year. The offer was made by a Canadian. Another offer of $21,000 she said was also turned down last year from a Detroit racing stable. From the tone of Mrs. Schelke's interview it would be like pulling teeth to get Shepperton and to quote her "no money can buy the horse." Her daughter, Mary, she said, has spent sleepless nights worrying over the possibility of her Dad selling the horse. Mary Schelke has been galloping the horse on the farm at Gormley since he was broken as a yearling and backed by her mother.

Constipation, biliousness, indigestion quickly relieved with Kipp's Herb Tablets, the effective tonic laxative. 25c. and 75c. sizes, at Storey's Drug Store.
