

Men of the Canadian invading forces stand guard over the first German prisoners captured by the Allied troops as they stormed ashore on the Normandy coast. Wounded soldiers were being given treatment in the background before being evacuated.

A BAG OF FOUR

Four enemy aircraft were shot down in one night's hunting by Ft.-Lieut. S.H.R. Cotterill, of Toronto, 24-year-old member of the City of Edmonton Intruder Squadron, while roaming over France the night of June 6, invasion night.

LOST IN LAKE ERIE

Barbara Martin, 20, of St. Thomas, Ont., was among those drowned when the cruiser "Olga" capsized at Port Stanley, Ont. Her body was recovered by police dragging the vicinity under the direction of Chief Michael McNamara.

TAKEN ON U-BOAT

Camilo Grande Pérez, 24 Canadian born at Transcona, Man., who was taken off the refugee ship, Serpa Pinto, by officers of a German submarine. He was returned after questioning.

COVERED INVADERS

Wing Com. George C. Keefer, Charlottetown, P.E.I., D.F.C. and bar, led a Canadian fighter wing into action in the air cover provided for the invasion of France. His pet's name is 'Rom-mell'.

BLIND LAW STUDENT

Lloyd McClintock, 27-year-old law graduate from McGill university, Montreal, will be ready to hang out his shingle next month if he passes his provincial bar examinations. Blinded by a dynamite blast in 1929 he took notes in Braille during his examinations.

FIGHTING FIFTH TAKE MOUNTAINS

Making use of a rope dropped by an advance party, men and equipment of the 5th army go easily up an almost vertical slope during recent manoeuvres in Italy. The methods were developed by the 5th army school of mountain warfare.

British flag marks beach commanders post on the beaches being stormed in the course of invasion. Photo was made during large-scale operations of the British Army a few weeks before the real thing.

TORPEDOED BY JAPS

After his ship had been torpedoed two days out of Bombay by the Japanese, Seaman First Class Norman Walker, 18, of the U.S. Navy, pictured here, had to take to a life-raft and was shot at by the Japs while in the water. He is home on leave in Peterboro, Ont.

ON CRUTCH HE MADE

Cleo Duquette, 17, of North Bay displays the crutch he made from the branch of a tree to walk 11 miles along the T. and N.O. railway to hospital at North Bay, Ont. for treatment of an injured foot. Dequette was carried nine miles over a brush trail after severing the artery on his foot while cutting wood at Anderson Lake. He made the rest of the trip without aid.

WON VICTORIA CROSS

Capt. (Acting Major) William Sidney of the British forces has been awarded the Victoria Cross. He is the son-in-law of Lord Gort, governor of Malta, also a Victoria Cross winner.

Seeking safety from the battle which threatened a few days ago to engulf their city, citizens of Rome sit and stand in front of St. Peter's cathedral in the Vatican City.

DEMOTED, SENT HOME

Lieut.-Col. Henry J. F. Miller of Salem, N.J., formerly a major-general in charge of the U.S.A.A.F. service command in Britain has been reduced to the permanent rank of lieutenant-colonel and sent home for speaking in public of invasion plans before D-Day. He is alleged to have mentioned the fact that the invasion would take place before June 15, while at a cocktail party in London.

GENERAL DIES

Maj.-Gen. A. E. Nash, 62, who enlisted as a private in the great war with a cavalry unit and was recently named inspector-general of the Canadian army for central Canada, died in hospital in Montreal, June 4. Gen. Nash had been under observation since suffering head injuries during a recent routine inspection tour at Bowmanville, Ont.

- Sun Valley -

MUSSELMAN LAKE

OLD TIME AND MODERN

DANCING

SATURDAY NIGHTS

Orchestra Music by Mt. Albert Boys

GOOD PRIZES

Come and Meet Your Friends

Pickering Pioneer Buried at Whitevale

The death occurred in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, on Thursday of John C. Carter, pioneer farmer of Pickering Township. He was born near Whitevale and spent most of his younger days in this vicinity. Deceased who was in his 74th year, was the youngest son of the late Thomas Carter and Jane Hood.

About twenty-nine years ago, he went to Scugog Island, where he made his home with his nephew Russell Carter. His wife, the former Ellen Locke predeceased him eight years ago. The late Mr. Carter leaves to mourn his loss, one daughter (Louise) Mrs. Bedford, who resides in Toronto, also one grandson in the Royal Navy, at Halifax. A brother Benjamin Carter resides at Green River. Funeral service was held from Toronto with interment in Whitevale cemetery. Six nephews acted as pallbearers.

Monster Street Fair and Dance

It's Stouffville's Popular Holiday Night

Under auspices of the Stouffville Lions Club

STOUFFVILLE

Wed., June 28 GAMES! BOOTHS! BINGO!

Manned by local Lions - all kinds of entertainment - real carnival spirit - never a dull moment - fun and prizes for everyone

$200 in Lucky Draw Prizes

FIFTEEN PRIZES IN ALL - YOUR BIG CHANCE FOR A QUARTER

Street Dance BILLY HOLE and his Live Wires

STOUFFVILLE LIONS SPEND MANY DOLLARS EACH YEAR IN THE AID OF UNDERPRIVILEGED CHILDREN - HERE IN THE SPIRIT OF GAIETY and LAUGHTER, A WORTHY CAUSE IS BEING REFINANCED

YOU HELP A WORTHY CAUSE WHEN YOU VISIT THIS FAIR

Lion A. H. Williams Games Committee Chairman

Lion Blake Sanders Dance Committee Chairman