GOODWOOD
 Only our older residents will remember Jennie McCullough daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James McCullough prominent citizens of Goodwood over half a century ago. Miss McCullough was a winsome girl and we regret to learn that she passed away at Vancouver last week at a very advanced age, the wife of Isaac Graham. Jennie, we believe, was the youngest daughter in the McCullough family. Her brother John who died only about three years ago frequently visited the old village of his birth, and of course the late James McCullough, barrister of Stouffville, is still remembered by our people.

Rev. Chapin gave a most helpful sermon on Sunday, when he compared our thoughts and judgments to a ball painted black on one side and white on the other. To look from one side we would say the ball was a black one and from the other, a white one. Yet when we look closer we see the real color. How often we all judge from our own small viewpoint. But God sees the whole ball.

ANNOUNCEMENT

STATEMENT REGARDING THE RATCLIFF HALL

Since we have received a number of requests for the renting of the Hall, we feel that it would be well to make some public announcement in explanation of the position we find ourselves in.

As was pointed out in The Stouffville Tribune of September 7th, the responsibility of licensing Public Halls now rests with the Municipal Councils. The Stouffville Council in considering the advisability of renewing our license, have decided that the risk involved is too great and so have refused to sign the required permit.

It is interesting to note that the danger which has been set forth as the reason for their refusal to grant a permit is no greater this year than in previous years.

We have been further informed that if on our own responsibility we cared to continue the practice of renting the Hall as a public convenience, it is unlikely that the Council would raise any objection. To this our reply is that it would be foolish to rent a building which has been unanimously condemned by our Municipal Council.

It has therefore been deemed advisable to refuse any and all requests for the renting of the Hall.

BISHOP SNIDER

Patriarch of the faith, and a man widely known over the whole Ontario field of Mennonites, Bishop Jonas Snider, 85, died at his home near Waterloo last week, following a lengthy illness.

On numerous occasions perhaps 25 and 30 years ago did he visit the Stouffville district. He was born on October 2, 1858, a son of the late Rev. and Mrs. Elias Snider. His entire lifetime was spent on the farm of his birth. In 1892 he was ordained a preacher of the Mennonite faith at the David Eby Mennonite Church, now the Erb St. Mennonite Church, Waterloo. Three years later he was named bishop in which capacity he has since served.

Bishop Snider was a brother of E. W. B. Snider, former president of the Waterloo Manufacturing Co., and who launched the scheme to bring Hydro electric power to this district from Niagara Falls. His grandfather was Jacob C. Snider, district pioneer who came from Pennsylvania and who took over the saw mill and flour mill from Abraham Erb, the first settler in what is now the town of Waterloo. Youngest son in a family of 12 children, Bishop Snider married Lucy Ann Snyder. She predeceased him in 1886 and subsequently he married Susannah Horst. She succumbed in 1933. Surviving are eight sons, two daughters, 30 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren.

The sons are: Edgar, Clayton and Delton of Waterloo; Addison and Walter, Bridgeport; Omar, New Dundee, Benjamin, Woodstock, and Gilbert at home; daughters, Clara and Hannah, at home. One brother, Amos Snider, also survives. Three daughters and one son predeceased him.

Mrs. Walter Byer, 8th concession, Markham, was a granddaughter of the deceased.

A private service was held on Saturday at his late home near Waterloo, followed by a public service in First Mennonite Church, Kitchener. Rev. J. B. Martin, pastor of Erb street Mennonite church, Waterloo, was in charge of the service. Interment was made at Kitchener.
