There will be special services in both the Baptist and United Churches on Christmas Sunday, December 24th.

The children of the United Church were entertained to a Christmas Party and program on Wednesday evening.

A miscellaneous shower was held on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ward in honor of their daughter Jean, who was recently married to Mr. Keith Drake.

Harold is the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Loyst, to be in action overseas. A brother Arthur has been in France for some time, while Ren, who has completed his quotas of bomber flights, is back in this country doing instruction work.

She is survived by one son, Russel, of Toronto, with whom she made her home, a granddaughter, Mrs. Thos. Philip of Brougham, and a sister, Mrs. Wm. McEachern, and a brother, James Dixon, of Beaverton. Funeral was held on Wednesday, with interment in Claremont Cemetery.

Changes Definite in Pickering Council

Reeve William Reesor Will Retire from Office.

There will definitely be changes in the set up of Pickering Township Council after Friday's nomination meeting. Reeve William Reesor told the Tribune on Monday that he would not be a candidate again this year.

Mr. Reesor has served the Township of Pickering for thirteen years, five of which he has been reeve. He has brought distinction and honor to the municipality during his tenure of office, elected Warden of Ontario County in 1943.

Mr. Blake Annis who has served on the council for a number of years, as both councillor and deputy-reeve will be the logical choice for the reeveship, while it is likely that Councillor W. H. Westney will undertake to fill the deputy-reeve's position.

Councillor M. S. Chapman, we understand, has declared his intention to retire from office, but strong pressure is being brought to bear to have him remain on the board.

With the passing of William Reesor from the municipal field, the township will not have a representative north of No. 7 highway, unless some new names are brought out at the nomination meeting. The names of Jos. Farr, Milton Pegg and John Scott are being prominently mentioned to fill a vacancy. In the south Mr. Jos. Bannigan is a likely nominee.

It is not generally known, but the Australian system of price control is patterned after Canada's. By March, 1943, when the Canadian plan was introduced in Australia, the cost of living in that country had increased during the war by 22 1/4%. Up to that time Australian price control had been based on an adjustment of prices to unavoidable increases in costs, with profit margins kept down. An overall price ceiling was introduced in 1943, and since that time the position has been maintained by the use of subsidies. A policy of linking wages with living costs has been in force in Australia for 25 years and is strongly endorsed by labour. As the cost of living moves up the wage rate automatically increases. This system makes it even more important to stabilize the cost of living, and labour in Australia is strongly in favour of price control, according to D. B. Copland, Australian price commissioner recently in this country to investigate wartime controls.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank our many friends for their loyal support during 1944. The fact that we have enjoyed the best Christmas season in our history testifies that our efforts to maintain the quality of our Christmas cakes and puddings have not been in vain.

WE WISH ONE AND ALL THE SEASON'S GREETINGS
AND A HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS

A STUDY IN FARM PRICES

In view of the interest in planning for agricultural stability in Canada in post-war years, a study of farm prices over a period of 62 years in Ontario (1882 to 1943) as issued by the Ontario Department of Agriculture, reveals a typical example of fluctuation in prices of farm products.

In the 62 years the average price of oats was 41.6 cents a bushel, with the highest in 1920 at 97.7; the lowest in 1896 at 20 cents. The average for barley was 57.5 cents, with the highest in 1918 at 145.8 cents; the lowest in 1898 at 27 cents. For hay the average during 62 years was $10.76 a ton. The high came in 1920 at $24.25 a ton; the lowest in 1898 was $6.22.
