

IN RAID ON IWO

An Agincourt pilot, flying with the United States Army Air Force, was among the squadron of Lightning fighters that struck at Iwo Jima in the last mission against that Japanese outpost before the United States Marines swarmed ashore. The pilot, 1st Lieut. William T. Goff, whose wife Frances, lives at Agincourt, flew an estimated 1,775 miles, shepherding the fleet of Liberators in the last aerial assault against the island.

Lieut. Goff's flight broke up minutes short of the island to take up battle with intercepting Jap Zeros. One Zero was damaged, the rest broke contact and headed for home.

Find Bonds in Ditch After Safe Cracked

Bonds which had been in a safe stolen from Markham post-office were found by school children strewn along ditches on the Ninth Line near Brown's Corners, police reported Thursday. Also found in the ditch were surgical instruments which had been in the car of Dr. C. R. McKay, reported stolen, and which police believe had been used to carry the 500-pound safe.

Reported missing still by postal officials are $900 in postage stamps, $400 in cheques and $75 in cash. Most of $2,200 in war savings certificates have been recovered they said.

The safe, the door of which had been smashed open with sledge hammers, was found by police on the Ninth Line two miles east of Markham.

The lock on a rear door of the post-office had been forced, officers stated. Sgt. Sidney Barraclough and Constables Ben Gayman and George Jeans are investigating with postal inspectors.

LATE MRS. PETER MURRAY

It was with deep regret the community learned of the passing on Wednesday, February 28th, 1945, of Mary Jardine, widow of the late Peter Murray, in her 77th year after an illness of only three weeks. The funeral took place to Uxbridge cemetery vault on Friday, March 2nd, 1945, services being conducted by Rev. L. E. Atkinson, at her late residence. Interment will take place later in Quaker Hill cemetery.

The late Mary Jardine was born in Whitchurch township in 1868, a daughter of the late Samuel Jardine and Martha Finch and married Peter Murray who predeceased her in 1915. For many years they farmed in Scott township near Sandford, and after the death of her husband Mrs. Murray and children moved to Uxbridge where they have resided for the past twenty-nine years.

Left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother are three sons Roy of Toronto, Archie of Richmond Hill, William of Uxbridge and two daughters, Mrs. Harold Smith Uxbridge and Miss Blanche Murray at home. One brother, Samuel of Adrian, Mich., and two sisters, Mrs. William McMullen of Wilfrid, Ont. Mrs. Robert Miller, of Uxbridge and twelve grandchildren also survive.

FRANCIS RUSSELL

Mount Forest's oldest resident, Mr. Francis Rusnell, passed away on Saturday in his 99th year, after a long and trying illness. Until his health began to fail, about a year ago, Mr. Rusnell had enjoyed unusual strength and vigor for a man of his years, was able to work in his garden and to make a daily visit down town. He took interest in municipal affairs and in questions affecting the welfare of the country as a whole. Since 1880 Mr. Rusnell had been a resident of that district and throughout the years was held in high esteem as a progressive, successful farmer in Egremont Township and later, as a resident in town.

Mr. Rusnell was born in the Township of Uxbridge, on May 20, 1846, and was married on Dec. 14, 1916 in St. John's Anglican Church, Uxbridge, to Annie Johnson who predeceased him in 1939. After living for four years in Uxbridge Township on Lot 3, Con. 5, they removed to Egremont in 1880 and settled on Lot 21, Con. 7, where Mr. Rusnell farmed successfully until 1913 when he retired to live in town.
