A pack of dogs is said to be roaming the countryside in the Mt. Zion district, and are reported to have ravaged several sheep flocks.

The death occurred on Wednesday, March 28, 1945, of Mrs. Lewis Forsyth, whose maiden name was Annetta M. Stephenson, at the residence of her daughter Mrs. Robt. J. Nesbitt, lot 14, con. 6, Uxbridge township in her 83rd year.

Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth had gone to their daughter's home, a week before to spend a few months and up until the time of her going, had been in her usual health. Though frail for a number of years, not taking an active part in life's duties, her quiet presence will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

She was born in the township of Caistor, County of Lincoln, eldest child of the late William and Sarah Stephenson. She was married to Lewis Forsyth of Uxbridge township in 1886, having celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1936. She was faithful to her church, seldom absent from a service as long as strength permitted her to attend. She was also an active member of the W.M.S.

Besides her husband Mrs. Forsyth is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Nesbitt at whose home the mother died, Mrs. Stanley Watson of Agincourt, Mrs. George Rowe, Woodstock R.R.G. also Miss Ethel Forsyth at home in Agincourt. The funeral on Saturday afternoon was from the family residence at Lockie Avenue, Agincourt, and interment was made in Uxbridge cemetery.

Pretty Wedding at Claremont Manse

Amid a setting of pink and white carnations and fern, the home of the bride's parents was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Saturday, March 31st, when Margaret Jean, only daughter of Rev. I. E. and Mrs. Kennedy, Claremont, was united in marriage to John Newman Sutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sutton, Toronto. Rev. I. E. Kennedy, father of the bride, performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her uncle Mr. T. E. Hill, Thessalon, the bride wore a gown of white sheer with lace inset, a headdress of roses to catch her veil and carried a beautiful bouquet of yellow Talisman roses and fern. Miss Jean Sutton, sister of the groom wearing mauve crepe with small hat and veil to match, a corsage of pink carnations and fern acted as bridesmaid. Mr. Reginald Kennedy, brother of the bride was groomsmen. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Walter Ward.

Assisting in receiving was the bride's mother wearing a figured silk jersey gown; and the groom's mother in blue crepe. For travelling the bride changed to a brown wool suit and top coat with brown accessories accentuated with lime green. The happy couple will make their home in Toronto.

Two Claremont Residences Sold

Two real estate transactions are reported in the village this week. The Mundell property, owned by Mr. Wm. Mundell for the last twenty-five years has been sold to Mr. Carter from Cedar Creek. Mr. Mundell who recently disposed of his household effects by public auction will make his home in Toronto with his daughter Mrs. Ben Kilpatrick. The sale is also reported of the Rumohr home to Mr. Henry Johnston of Stouffville. The Johnston's recently retired to Stouffville from their farm on the 9th concession, but disposed of their home there last week and will return to Claremont.

Mrs. Nelson Wagg Laid to Rest Tuesday

The death of Mrs. Nelson Wagg of Claremont at the hospital in Sarnia removed a well and favorably known personage from this district where she will be greatly mourned. Mrs. Wagg who was in her 68th year died on Saturday, March 31 following a serious illness. During her illness she had been at the home of her daughter in Sarnia until her condition became such that she was removed to the hospital. The remains were brought to Claremont for the funeral here on Tuesday from the late home to Claremont cemetery. Rev. Mr. Winham conducted the service.

Mrs. Nelson Wagg whose maiden name was Mary Rebecca Fisher, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fisher of Agincourt, has been an ardent worker in the Baptist church at Claremont since locating here in 1900. She was always willing and anxious to do her part, and her removal will leave a space not easy to fill.

Besides her husband, a prominent farmer and horseman, there survives three daughters, Mrs. A. E. Morgan (Mable) of Sarnia, Miss Mary Wagg and Miss Billie Wagg in Detroit. Two grandchildren are Evelyn and James Morgan. There is one brother Arthur Fisher and one sister Mrs. Stanley Richardson both living in New Liskeard.

Many old friends assembled for the funeral conducted by her pastor. The pall bearers were Messrs. Thos. Gregg, James Coates, Jos. Farr, Jack Norton, Thos. Stanbury and Evans Ward.

Midnight Curfew for Jute Boxes in Pickering Township

Pickering Township will license restaurants and lunch counters throughout the township, and will prohibit the playing of jute boxes after twelve o'clock midnight. There have been a number of complaints received from time to time regarding the manner in which some of these places are conducted. Some lunch rooms were becoming "hangouts" where young folks caroused to the strains of jute box jigs until the wee small hours, not only doing harm to themselves, but disturbing the neighborhood in general. A fee of $3 was imposed.

The agreements between Pickering Township and the Brougham and Claremont Fire Brigades were re-drafted at the regular meeting on Monday, and will now grant these two outfits $40 per fire for the first ten fires each year. Pickering village receives $400 for their first ten fires, $30 per fire after that, plus chemical.

A bylaw was passed naming the following to the Claremont Park Board and including the reeve and deputy reeve, Jos. Farr, Dr. Tomlinson, Geo. Constable, Mr. Irvine, Don Hedges, Fred Ward, John Norton and Jas. Petty.

It was revealed that Mrs. Gordon who has conducted the public health nursing service in the municipality for the past two and a half years, has resigned, and it is expected that a student nurse will be engaged in May to fill the vacancy.

A deputation headed by Mrs. M. Burrows, and representing the Institute and Fire Brigade of Brougham waited on council to see if some improvements could be undertaken at the township hall. These local bodies are anxious to go ahead with plans for more recreational events for the young people of the district, and stated that they were willing to meet the council halfway on any improvement plan they undertook.

Insurance policies covering township road equipment were renewed with Mr. Donald Beer, and a clause covering fire and theft was added to the policy for the maintenance.

Allan McKenzie of lot 17, concession 4, was paid $36 for three sheep killed by dogs.

Road accounts for the month totalled $3530.91 and contingencies $1279.52. It was agreed that council should purchase forty tons of calcium dust layer for the roads this year.

BROUGHAM

Congratulations to Mrs. E. E. Annis, who now wears the "Silver Blood Donor's Button", she having given six blood donations.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burrows also Helen and Ralph and Mrs. Phillips of North Oshawa were weekend guests with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burrows.

Mrs. Gannon and Mr. W. C. Willson were at Keswick on Thursday attending the funeral of their cousin, the late Mrs. Chas. Willoughby.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gannon and Bonnie of Oshawa, also Miss Gladys Gannon, R.N. of Toronto, were holiday guests with their parents D. and Mrs. Gannon.

Weekend visitors at the William Ellicott home were: Mrs. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ellicott and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Ravey of Toronto, also Mrs. Ford and daughters of West Hill.

Mrs. Ross Knox spent the weekend with friends near Markham.

Misses Helen and Patsy Knox spent a couple of days with their grandparents, Wm. and Mrs. Knox. Mr. Russell Gray was busy during the weekend wiring the new house being built by Mr. Roland Harden.

The Women's Institute will hold their regular meeting on Tuesday, April 10th at the home of Mrs. W. C. Willson. Roll call to be answered by quotations "About Happiness". A paper on Social Welfare will be given by Mrs. Glen, convener.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Burrows visited their son Albert and family of Oshawa one day last week.

Mrs. Maskell and daughter Jean of Greenwood, called on friends and also attended Easter services here on Sunday afternoon.

Several from here were at Pickering on Saturday attending the "Silver wedding" for Mr. and Mrs. C. Balsdon.

Mrs. Chas. Burrows received an Easter gift in the form of a beautiful "Hydrangea" which her son Sgt. Joe Burrows cabled to her from Germany. Mrs. Burrows kindly loaned it to the church for Easter Sunday.

Mr. Frank Hamilton spent Good Friday with his sister, Mrs. Hogle and family at Columbus.

Following a second emergency operation Mr. John Soden is slowly gaining his way back to health in Oshawa Hospital.

Bowlers on Greens at Annual Meeting

Claremont Bowling Club established something of a record last week when they bowled on the local greens on the occasion of their annual meeting. Some thirty-five members attended. The club enjoyed a pot-luck supper and the election of officers was conducted by Earl Beare, chairman.

The financial condition of the club was revealed as quite healthy with cash on hand of $227.00 and a Victory Bond of $250.00.

It was agreed that the annual club dance should be held early in April, but no definite date was set.

The new officers for 1945-46 are as follows: President, Earl Beare; 1st Vice, R. E. Forsyth; 2nd Vice, Fred Evans; Sec-treas, W. Irwin; Assist. Don Hedges; prize committee, Mrs. F. Evans, F. Evans; Mrs. E. Beare, John Badgerow; lunch comm., Mrs. Cox, Mrs. F. Evans; games comm., Don Hedges, Mr. Ortiz, Mr. Cox; membership comm., Messrs. Cox, Irwin, Beare and Badgerow; greens comm., Messrs. Loyst, Evans, Ward, Hedges.
