Morrison's record: 150 flights against the enemy, 16 Nazi planes downed and damaged. He lost a leg in combat and spent one year in a German prison camp. Following repatriation, the R.C.A.F. made use of his outstanding organizing and directing ability in Canada until March 1945.

Morrison knows how Canadian farm produce was made available to Britain under King government policies—and he knows how essential that food was to supply the people of Britain and the armies of the United Kingdom, Canada and the United States before D-Day. Without Canadian farm produce, victory could not have been achieved.

Morrison himself an amputation case, understands the rehabilitation problems of returning service men.

His is a Proud, Clean Record.

We think the front cover on last week's Tribune was very appropriate for the occasion and will make an interesting addition to all scrap-books.

While the growth of outdoor flowers has been retarded by inclement weather, a couple of specimens in the windows are worthy of note, namely, a Poinsetta, grown by Miss Martha Hoover which measures forty-five inches in height and a Calla Lily in the Moyer home with a stem forty inches long. While we are on the subject of flowers, there was a beautiful bouquet of snapdragons and stocks in the church on Mother's Day which was cabled by Ross Cunningham of England to Mrs. Anthony Hoover.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wideman and family motored to Peterboro one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lehman, of Stouffville, had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. Wes. Wideman on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Knight visited at the A. Hoover's home recently.

You can't afford to miss it.

DeCourcy Rayner, will preach on "God's Hand in This Present War," giving thrilling instances of Divine intervention in great times of need. All are invited to hear this message.

VICTORIA SQUARE

The V-E service held in the church last Monday was well attended. Members of Headford and Brown's Corners congregations were also present.

On Tuesday evening, the W.A. held a social in the Sunday School room. A very fine program was given consisting of readings by Lillian Nichols and Marion Boynton, piano instrumental by Miss June Collard, and musical numbers by the male quartette, Messrs. Bert Sanderson, Clare Sanderson, John Nigh, and Walter Smith. Capt. Bruce McCausland gave a very interesting talk of his experiences while serving in Italy. The highlight of the evening was a presentation of a lovely set of dishes to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Huggins. Mr. and Mrs. Huggins and family have recently moved to Newmarket. Miss Bertie Forster read the address while Misses Coral Perkins and Edna Sanderson presented the dishes. Dainty refreshments were served which brought a very enjoyable evening to a close.

Mr. Len. Brillinger, our trucker, was taken to Y.C.H. suffering from rheumatic fever and will be there for some time. Mr. Fred Hood will take up the trucking business in his absence.

NOW KNOWS THERE'S A TOWNSHIP DUMP

A resident of Thornhill escaped punishment last week when he was charged with transporting pheasants in his car. The charge was laid by Constable B. Gayman of Markham Township who said the accused was seen shooting at a pheasant, and that pheasant feathers were actually found in the car. However, the magistrate dismissed the case, because of conflicting evidence of witnesses about the car. But, the charge further emphasizes the fact that persons who molest pheasants will be prosecuted.

Another case from Markham that people should be informed on was laid against Wm. Knappert of Richmond Hill and which cost him $5 for dumping rubbish on the road allowance.

Tin cans, bottles, car parts, etc., formed the load deposited at lots 30-31, con. 1. Despite the fact that the accused had lived in the township for five years, he declared he never knew there was a township dumping place at Headford. Now he knows; and so should others who might be tempted to discard their old materials on the public road side.

Missionary Rally

Raises over $1,000

If the enthusiasm reached at the Gormley Missionary Conference last week held in the M.B.C. church there, is reckoned in the number of dollars raised for foreign missions, then the interest was high indeed. Total collections for missions reached over $1,000, Rev. F. Huson informed The Tribune.

All week this rally continued from Monday until Sunday night when it concluded the final day with three great meetings for which the seating in the church was taxed. Folks came from a distance and brought their lunch, and it seemed that every available person in the immediate locality of Gormley, was present.

Inspiring and effective messages were brought by Dr. Traub, and Rev. R.B. Dittmer over the weekend, the latter from Springfield, Ohio. Their missionary experience, as indeed that of previous speakers Rev. Mr. Shantz and Rev. Mr. Chapin, earlier in the week, were features of the conference. The music throughout the conference also featured the proceedings, which was very marked at the final service on Sunday evening.

Federal Election June 11

Vote for Sinclair

To the Electors of Ontario Riding :

Germany has surrendered unconditionally. The war in Europe is over. Victory has been celebrated fittingly by Thanksgiving to Almighty God for the overthrow of our enemies, by suitable celebrations, and by general rejoicing. Throughout it all has been the sobering knowledge that very many of our brightest young men and women have sacrificed all to give us the victory in which we rejoice. To these we all pay our tribute and to their families and kin we all extend our deepest sympathy.

To those of our armed forces who have returned and who will be returning shortly, every assistance must be given to enable them to re-establish themselves in civilian life, and to care for and restore to health all injured ones. The Government has had this in mind during the war and has recognized the obligation of the people to provide for the dependents of those who will not return, to care for the sick and disabled, and to see that opportunities are afforded to place all in a better position than they occupied before enlisting.

The Government program provides for pensions and medical care, a rehabilitation grant with clothing allowance, transportation home on discharge, allowances during the period of transition, free vocational training and college education, preference in employment, opportunities to engage in farming and re-establishment credits with wide scope. In addition a war service gratuity is provided allowing each a substantial sum to use as he wishes. This is not a policy or promise for the election campaign but these provisions are the law of the land, written in the statute books by the Government while the war was being waged. In the war nothing the Government could do for the men was omitted. Our soldiers had the best of training, they had the best weapons, equipment and supplies in the world and they had brave and capable leaders. The Government is determined that the same treatment shall be accorded them on their return to civil life and that a grateful nation will show its appreciation for the freedom we have as a result of their victory.

I ask the electors to show their appreciation of the Government's Plans for our veterans by according me their support. The plans prepared people return the Government to office.

So as we move on from victory in Europe to victory in Japan and to final peace, we look forward and not backward. We await the homecoming of our men and women to take their places once more, guaranteed a security which they have just earned. The plans I have outlined, which have been made after a careful consideration of the just claims of the veterans, will ensure happiness and contentment to all and a full share in the prosperity which is due to Canadians when full peace is restored.

These plans and this program for the veterans and their families having been prepared by our Government can best be carried out by that same Government when returned to office. I ask the electors to give me their votes to enable me to assist that Government in carrying out these plans as a matter of gratitude to those who have served us so well.

Yours in gratitude,
W. E. N. SINCLAIR.
