Passengers in both cars suffered minor cuts and bruises and received medical attention from Dr. N. F. Tomlinson of Claremont.

On Thursday morning, May 10th at the North Oshawa Rest Home the death occurred of Mrs. Wm. Luke of Raglan. Mrs. Luke was born in Brooklin in 1858, the daughter of Richard and Julie Campion. She attended school at Brooklin and later at Chalk Lake where her family resided for some time. On September 3, 1873, she became the wife of Wm. Luke, who predeceased her 11 years ago, after sixty years of married life. Mrs. Luke was a member of Raglan United Church, where she was a regular attendant and active worker for many years having held the position of president of the Ladies' Aid for nine years. Being of a kindly Christian character, she was well beloved by a host of friends. Mrs. Luke is survived by one daughter, Mrs. James Latimer of Raglan; three sons, George and Charles of Raglan, and Noah of Toronto; also one brother, Isaac Campion and one sister, Mrs. Robt. Harston of Toronto. There are six grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. The funeral service was held at Raglan United Church Saturday, followed by interment in Groveside cemetery, Brooklin.

Local Lad Has Bad Turnie

Keith Norton, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Norton of Claremont, received injury to his face on Sunday evening requiring nine stitches when he was in collision with a bicycle ridden by Bruce Kennedy. The accident occurred at the four corners in Claremont as the Norton boy was walking on the road in company with several other young people. Dr. Tomlinson and Dr. S. Ball of Stouffville gave medical aid.

School Principal Resigns Position

Mr. Allen Prouse, principal of Claremont Continuation School has resigned his position here, and we understand has accepted a teaching post at Georgetown. Mr. Prouse is completing some four years on the Claremont staff, and has been an ardent worker in the community during his term of office. Under his guidance the school has progressed, and the annual Commencement Exercises has come to be one of the big events of the year. Mr. Prouse has taken a keen interest in the work among the boys of the school and is a commissioned officer in the Air Cadet Squadron in Stouffville to which many of the lads attending this school belong.

Large Gatherings at United Church on Sunday

An interesting feature of the Mother's Day service held in the United Church here on Sunday morning, was the ordinance of baptism which was administered by Rev. I. E. Kennedy to the children of seven families, being Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ware, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Gall, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Redshaw and Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Tran. In the evening a joint victory service of the two local churches was held in the United auditorium with both Rev. Kennedy and Rev. Wenham addressing the capacity congregation. The choir had prepared special music for the occasion and this was augmented by a men's double quartette comprising men of both choirs.

BROUGHAM

V.E. Day passed very quietly with few flags flying and bells ringing. In the evening a Thanksgiving service was held in the church conducted by Rev. I. E. Kennedy, with a very good attendance.

On Sunday, May 13, Mother's Day was observed here with Rev. I. E. Kennedy in charge assisted by Everson Norton, assistant superintendent. Miss D. Harlock read the "story". ## HOLTBY-KETTLEWELL

A pretty wedding took place Saturday, May 12th, in Danforth United Church, when Sylvia, daughter of Mrs. R. Kiell, Toronto and the late Mr. H. Kettlewell was united in marriage to William Lorne Holtby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Holtby, Brougham. Rev. Norman McMurray performed the ceremony, against a setting of white snapdragons, with Mr. G. Franklin Morris at the organ. Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Fred Lewis, the bride wore traditional white satin with "Mary Stewart" style head-dress and floor-length embroidered veil. She carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and talisman roses. Mrs. Ruth Lawless, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, gowned in blue chiffon and carrying pink carnations. Miss Merle Holtby, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid in pink chiffon and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations and pansies. Both attendants wore shoulder length veils of embroidered net matching the color of their gowns. The best man was Mr. Ralph Holtby, brother of the groom while the ushers were Mr. Bruce Ford and Mr. Harry Kibbel. A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Kiell, Winona Drive, where the bride's mother received wearing light blue crepe and corsage of pink carnations, the groom's mother assisted wearing a sashine blue french sheer with a corsage of pink carnations. After the reception the bride and groom left for a short wedding trip to points in Eastern Ontario.
