Do we as readers of this paper realize or take advantage of the opportunities offered? The advertising medium is immense. A small ad brings buyers from a thirty mile radius who call for this paper before it is in the mail. The old slogan is true that it pays to advertise but to get big results here is the new version "It pays to advertise in The Tribune."

Mr. Frank Burnett, of Toronto was with Mrs. D. Burnett over Sunday.

The Christian Endeavour was entertained by the Vivian Young People last Wednesday night. Gordon Brown was in charge of the program and Mrs. C. Lemon gave the topic. A social time was enjoyed at the close of the meeting.

PROVINCE OF ONTARIO
GENERAL ELECTION, JUNE 4th, 1945

NOTICE

To Active Service Voters who are absent from their units

The attention of members of the Navy, Army and Air Force and all other persons who qualify as Active Service Voters under the Ontario Active Service Voting Regulations, 1945, is directed to the following provisions.

1. Active Service Voters at their homes.

Active Service Voters who are in their place of ordinary residence on polling day may vote in the manner prescribed by the Election Act for civilian voters, whether or not their names are on the Voters' List, on taking a declaration (Form 8A) before the deputy returning officer.

Such voters may vote at the regular polling place for the voting sub-division in which they reside.

2. Active Service Voters on Leave or Furlough.

Active Service Voters who are absent from their units but not in their place of ordinary residence, on leave or furlough, including such voters on farm leave or industrial leave, may poll their votes with any commissioned officer appointed to take the votes of Active Service Voters, on producing to such commissioned officer documentary proof that they are on leave or furlough and provided that they have not already voted in the election.

Such voters should apply to the nearest Naval, Military or Air Force headquarters for information as to the location of the Commissioned Officer nearest to their present address.

Alex. C. Lewis
CHIEF ELECTION OFFICER,
