IN MEMORIAM

HISEY—In loving memory of a brother and uncle, Tpr. Elgin A. Hisey, who died of wounds in Italy on June 22nd and buried in Orvieto cemetery, Italy, June 23rd. We often think we see his smiling face.

As he bade his last good-bye, And he left his home forever, In a distant land to bravely die, Too far away for sight or speech, But not too far for thought to reach.

Sweet to remember him, who once was here And who, though absent, is just as dear. Ever remembered by Herb, Dorothy and Barbara.

IN MEMORIAM

OGDEN—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother Sarah Ogden who died June 18, 1941. Four years have passed and gone Since one we loved so well, Was taken from our home on earth With Jesus Christ to dwell. The flowers we place upon her grave

May wither and decay, But the love for her who sleeps beneath Shall never fade away. Ever remembered by husband, sons and daughters.

IN MEMORIAM

You linger in our memory still. Not just to-day, but always will. Sadly missed by son Carl, daughter-in-law Mabel, and granddaughter Carleen.

IN MEMORIAM

FORESTER—In loving memory of John Forester, who passed away June 16, 1935. Ten years have passed since that sad day.

When one we loved was called away God took him home; it was His will, But in our hearts he liveth still. Lovingly remembered by Wife and Daughter.

A most interesting set of facts have been disclosed in Ottawa and these have caused much comment in the capital. Of Canada's 243 constituencies, the rural vote in the last general election was dominant in 151 and the urban vote in 75, with a total of 101 ridings being almost all rural or not more than 10 per cent of urban polls and in 503 ridings the rural vote being predominant.

LOVE FEAST SERVICES NEXT SUNDAY

The coming love feast service at Heise Hill Brethren in Christ Church will open next Saturday morning, June 23, at 10 o'clock. Services will continue all day, and meals will be served free. At 7 p.m. a communion service will be held, and on Sunday services will again be resumed at 10 o'clock in the morning, concluding with a fellowship and preaching service at 7 p.m.

Several visiting ministers are expected to be present. The general public is invited to attend these services and enjoy the spiritual feast with their friends.

THEY KEEP IN TOUCH WITH US

Friends will rejoice to learn that their old friend and pastor Rev. I. Brubacher, now of Hespeler and formerly of Stouffville and Gormley who has been ill in bed, is showing improvement. In fact he wrote a note to The Tribune this week and said how much he enjoys this paper from week to week. Some day Stouffville people will be proud to claim the Brubachers as residents of this place, something we hope that circumstances will bring about.
