Send The Tribune to absent friends.

2nd LINE UXBRIDGE

The Taylor boys are busy these weekends at Cedar Beach, Musselman's Lake.
With the summer days here and everyone more or less having visitors or they themselves visiting or holidaying your news correspondent would be glad to have any of these sent in by phone or note.

DAVID HENRY HOWE
Friends of Mrs. D. H. Howe, formerly Annie Bowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bowers, will be sorry to learn of the death of her husband, David Henry Howe, at the Private Patients Pavilion, Toronto General Hospital, on Monday, June 18th, in his 67th year. Mr. and Mrs. Howe have been living at 5836 Holcomb St., Detroit, for 20 years, where their only daughter, Mrs. Norman Gurnett, lives. They came to Hillsburg, Ont., a month ago, thinking Mr. Howe's health which had not been good since March, would improve. However, he became weaker and had to be taken to the hospital in Toronto on June 12th. The funeral service was held from the Boves Funeral Home, Hillsburg, on Wednesday, June 20th with burial in the family plot there.
He was dearly loved and respected by all who knew him and will be sadly missed by his family. Besides his widow, one daughter, and four grandchildren, an only brother survives. His oldest grandson, Jackson Gurnett is with the American Army in Germany.

BAPTIST CHURCH SCENE OF PRETTY WEDDING
A quiet wedding was solemnized Saturday evening, June 23rd, in Stouffville Baptist Church, when Harriet Dawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. M. Goodwood, became the bride of Pte. Dean Percy, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Percy of Markham. Rev. D. Macgregor officiated.
The bride was becomingly gowned in a street length dress of blush beige crepe, with brown accessories and corsage of pink roses. She wore a handsome Boliva watch, the gift of the groom. Miss Henrietta Percy, sister of the groom, acted as maid of honor and wore a street length dress in shade of gold, with brown accessories. Miss Olive Mays, as bridesmaid, wore a printed silk jersey with brown accessories. Both bridesmaids had corsages of Johanna Hill roses. The best man was Mr. John Mays, brother of the bride. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the immediate families. The couple will make their home in Markham.

BALSAM
If you like flowers, just take a look over Balsam. There are some excellent gardens to be seen here.
George Wilson of Balsam is suffering from an acute heart condition, and his friends hope for an early recovery.
Mt. Zion held its annual picnic on Saturday, which proved a wonderful fine day for the happy event.
Charles Day is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Day here. No doubt he will enjoy our fine community.
Grain crops look most promising here, while the strawberry crop is not so good. Of course the hot dry weather this week may add to the output of the red berries considerably.
The wife of Richard Day arrived here from Scotland, on June 18, and received a grand welcome at the home of Charlie's parents Mr. and Mrs. Richard Day. His war bride from Glasgow reports that she received excellent treatment from the Red Cross enroute to Canada, and otherwise the voyage was most pleasant too since the weather was nice and such pests as submarines were not in evidence any more.

RINGWOOD
Several from here attended Dickson's Hill cemetery decoration on Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hisey attended the Morley-White wedding at Wesley United church on Saturday.
Wet weather certainly held back the work on local farms a fact we were more than impressed with this week when we saw men sowing turnips on the Ringwood Farm of Geo. Rodanz while looking in another direction one could see waving hay fields ready for the mower.
Repairs on the townline west are greatly appreciated. It is expected that when the legislature convenes in a few weeks the bill will be passed which was sent forward from County Council causing the townline to become a county road rather than a Toronto & York highway from Stouffville to Yonge street. During the change over there was a disposition to do very little work on it.
These are busy days for correspondents and they may not see what is going on all around. Keep this in mind and phone in items for Ringwood which can be had under this heading from week to week. The editor says that a busy locality like Ringwood should have half a column of news weekly. How about your contribution?
Friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Foot on Monday evening to present Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Foot with a shower of linen and china. They were also the recipients of a beautiful dinette suite given by the parents, brothers and sisters of the groom. After lunch they were greeted with a rousing musical number under direction of Mr. Walter Bulley, chivari band leader.

Almost ninety people were present at our Young Peoples' meeting on Monday evening when the 2nd Baptist members were present to supply the program. Mr. Bruce Clarke had the topic and spoke from John 15:12 "This is my commandment, that ye love one another even so I have loved you." Musical selections, both instrumental and vocal were very much enjoyed. We hope to have another service of fellowship together before too long.
Hearty congratulations to Bette Barrett, Arthur Byer and Robert White who have passed the entrance on their year's work.
A number of pupils of Miss Bertha Stouffer spent an enjoyable afternoon at a musical recital in her home on Saturday afternoon.

A large congregation filled the church on Sunday afternoon on the occasion of the annual memorial service. The Rev. Mr. Mallis of Toronto delivered an appropriate address and the Gormley quartette sang several selections.

OLD FRIENDS GATHER FOR BIRTHDAY EVENT
In honor of Mrs. Chester Cook of Detroit and Mrs. C. Lee of Uxbridge a party was held at the home of Mrs. Ed. McNelly, Musselman's Lake. ARTHUR DOWSWELL EXHIBITS A PET COON
On Monday afternoon, Arthur Dowswell, Uxbridge farmer and former resident of town, walked into The Tribune office with a rich fur piece about his neck, the like of which many a lady has paid hundreds of dollars for. There was a difference, however, Arthur's coon fur was in the live state, in the form of a young pet coon, that fondled about his neck like a kitten. Three coons were caught in Jas. Wagg's bush, 2nd concession of Uxbridge and this one is being cared for on the Dowswell farm. The little visitor has made friends with the farm collie, and sleeps with the dog. One bottle of milk a day meets its hunger pangs.
