Remarkable Lady Nearly Ninety

Somehow or other everybody has a great admiration for very elderly people, and we even delight to read about them. This being a fact, we are pleased to call attention to one of the older people of Whitchurch Township, Mrs. William Baker who for nearly 55 years has lived on the 6th concession just a short distance north of the townline Baptist church.

As was her custom, Mrs. Baker spent last winter and spring with her daughter Mrs. Thos. Phillips, near Uxbridge, but last month returned to reopen her home in Whitchurch for a few weeks. At least, this place which has been a friendly spot close to the road for more than half a century, rather brings to mind the poem, "The House by the Side of the Road," and which in part runs: Let me live in a house

By the side of the road
Where the race of men go by—
Wise, foolish, so am I.
Then why should I sit
In the scorn's seat,
Or hurl the cynic's ban?

Let me live in my house,
By the side of the road,
And be a friend to man.

Mrs. Baker's maiden name was Celia Dennie, being born at Newmarket 89 years ago. She looks forward to her next birthday, this September. Her husband died in 1925, and two daughters are Mrs. Phillips, also Mrs. Forsyth, Toronto, and four brothers, namely, Eli, William, and Fred, Dennie in Whitchurch and Joseph in London. Three sisters are Teeny Barker of Barrie, Mrs. Janet Horner of Headford, and Miss Emily Dennie of Toronto. Mrs. Baker insists on caring for her own home, and will not tolerate undue assistance, and yet despite her great weight of years, she is quite capable.

ALTONA

Two nephews of Mr. Madill, Ray and Don Andrews of Toronto were present, who were on furlough from overseas and are returning, receiving training instruction for the Pacific. Mr. O. Madill, Altona, was elected president for another year and Glen Alfred, Uxbridge, sec. treas. They plan to meet next year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stearman, Uxbridge.

GORMLEY

Mrs. Cecil Brown of Toronto spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bond while her husband attended Stayner Camp Meeting.

We are all happy to welcome two Gormley boys home from overseas, Lloyd Harvey of the RCAF who was stationed in England and will leave for duty in the Pacific following a thirty day leave, and Vernon Gooding who arrived home on July 2 and has been a prisoner since September 28th. For the first five months, he worked on the railway cleaning up the rubble from the RAF bombings, but the last three months he delivered Red Cross parcels from Switzerland to camps throughout southern Germany. In the camp the prisoners were reasonably well-treated but food was very scarce; black coffee for breakfast, thin soup for dinner and a few potatoes and black bread

SAVE FEED... SAVE PIGS
PREVENT ANAEMIA
KNOCK OUT WORMS

EVER have little pigs slow up, go pale in the lips and ears, get "stary" haired... lose ground, and maybe die? That's anaemia. It's very common, and very expensive. Here's a product that prevents it at very low cost... Purina Pigemia. Just paint it on the sow's udder. Then every last youngster in the litter gets its dose.

People who have studied it say that more than half the hogs in this country have worms. Wormy, unthrifty pigs pay no profits. Plan to knock the worms out of yours at 10 to 12 weeks. There's no trick to doing it with these Purina Pigtabs. Full but simple directions with every box.

Suggest Old Timers Play to Benefit Kids

The suggestion has been thrown out by sports enthusiasts of North York with Ab. Hulse, Newmarket and Camp Borden sports columnist as the guiding light, that old timers baseball game to benefit the junior ball teams hereabouts would be a grand venture.

There are quite a number around who would perhaps lend a hand in such an undertaking. From Stouffville we can think of Earl Cook, Red Forsyth, Wes. Boadway, Reg Button, with of course Shine Davis as umpire. Down in Markham are Max Reesor and brother Peter, both of whom played with Stouffville, Richmond Hill have Clary Mylks, Hank Grainger, Wes Middleton and Ken Blanchard, while Aurora could contribute Jack Pennock, George Jiggins, Bill Holloway, Harry Squibb and George Pattenden. Newmarket is swarming with former ball players, beginning with Herb Cain, Turan, Epworth, Scott, Wilson, McHals, Molyneaux, while at Sutton is Dr. Hal Learoyd, LaChapelle, and Jimmy Nolan from Bradford.

Library closing for holidays Saturday, July 21st, opening Tuesday, August 7th.

Goodwood Street Dance

A big street affair will be held at Goodwood on Wednesday evening, July 25th, when Billy Hole and His Live Wires will supply the music beginning at nine o'clock.
