

GREAT SERVICE OF SACRED MUSIC AND SONG

Mennonite Church, Gormley
SUN., OCT. 21 7 p.m.

We have been able to secure Colonel R. Spooner of the Salvation Army as one of our musicians. Col. Spooner is an accomplished player on the concertina. He also will be our speaker of the evening. Col. Spooner will be accompanied by some cadets of the Salvation Army College of which he is principal.

OTHER TALENT TAKING PART

MISS MYRLIA LEHMAN—the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Lehman of Toronto. Miss Lehman has played in Stouffville with her violin at the street meetings.
THE HENDERSON SISTERS OF GORMLEY
MR. HAROLD BRITTON WITH HIS ELECTRIC GUITAR AND MOUTH ORGAN
MASTER ELDON LEHMAN, the ten-year-old pianist
Mrs. A. Hutchinson, player of the piano accordion
Miss Helen Doner, soloist
Cadets Trio from the Salvation Army College
Mrs. Allan Doner and others will be taking part

PLAN TO ATTEND THIS SERVICE

GREENWOOD

The W.A. and Red Cross meets this Thursday afternoon in the basement of the church.

Anniversary services will be held the last Sunday of the month. The Y.P.S. met on Sunday evening at Miss Marjory Byer's with a

BETHESDA

Bethesda W.I. will hold a crokinole party on Friday evening, Oct. 19, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ratcliff. Members please bring pumpkin pies. Everybody welcome.

A large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Steckley last Thursday for the purpose of welcoming Reesor home who had returned from overseas a few days earlier. A very pleasant evening was spent.

The ladies of the community are meeting at the homes of Mrs. E. Steckley and Mrs. Louis Brillinger on Tuesday for a quilting. Four quilts are to be sent in the bundles for the people of Europe.

ALTONA

Miss Edith Hughes of Toronto was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carter.

Mr. Fletcher Goudie is quite busy between working for others and also trying to make extensive alterations on his own property. His son Ivan has returned from the West, and is assisting him with the work.

A number of neighbors in the community met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Kerswill on Friday evening to shower the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Winn.

fair attendance.

The Mission Circle will meet on Friday night at the home of Mrs. Elmo Disney. Miss Doreen Pegg is in charge of the program.

Our sympathy goes out to the Brown family in the passing of their sister and aunt, Mrs. D. Saunders. She was in her 93rd year.

Sorry to report that Mrs. F. W. Gibson is somewhat under the weather.

Mrs. Wm. Middleton is reported to be showing some improvement, but she will be in the hospital for some time yet.

Lyle and Mrs. Mark of Woodbridge called on some of their friends last Sunday.

Percy and Mrs. Middleton and Isabel of Buffalo are with relatives here for a few days.

Miss Eva Jones of Toronto visited with Mrs. Green on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Wannop entertained the former's mother last Sunday, it being her birthday.

BLOOMINGTON

Miss Helen Lemon was the recipient of a pair of wooden shoes from Holland. Her uncle, Lieut. Col. Eric Nighswander O.B.E. who has been overseas five years sent the gift.

Even with the uncertain weather conditions nearly all the corn in this locality is cut and in the silo. The tricky weather makes it cold for the fingers in carrot and potato harvesting.

Mrs. L. Paisley has returned home after spending a few weeks with her daughter in Brampton.

Mrs. Fockler and Miss Alta Fockler spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Leask at Greenbank.

Guests with Mr. and Mrs. C. Lemon on Saturday and Sunday were Messrs. Cliff, Grant and Glen Pilkey of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mitchell and sons Walter and Billy of Utica were also visitors.

GOODWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Reid are out of town on a visit in Montreal.

We welcome to our village Mr. and Mrs. David Peebles and wee daughter, Vaughan. Mr. Peebles is our new student minister.

Quite a number from here attended the anniversary services at Siloam last Sunday, when Mr. Garret and Mr. Peebles took the two services. There were large crowds.

Sorry to report Mr. Wm. Whittleton is not very well.

Glad to welcome home from overseas Laurie Wagg who is fit and well.

A telegram was received recently by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baston, saying their son Elwood was in Montreal. Elwood is just back from a trip to South Africa, and his friends and relatives will be glad to have him home again.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Thos Dawson to our village. Mr. Dawson was formerly a Goodwood farmer but now becomes a resident of the village.

The War Branch are holding a drive for used clothing. Clothes may be left at Jones' Store. Any ladies wishing wool to knit may get it from Mrs. Jones, wool convener.

Births

ALSO — To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Alsop, Claremont, at the Brierbush Hospital, Stouffville, on Saturday, Oct. 13, 1945 a son.

BALANCED FEED MEANS MORE EGGS —

THE MARMILL WAY MEANS MORE PROFITS Measuring Feed Values

While it may be quite an easy matter to fool the poultryman on nutritional value, remember the hen will always tell. The yardstick by which to measure the value of an egg mash is not the price, but the record of production and the mash consumption. This method of measuring proves that quality, or a correctly balanced mash, is more economical.

As the good lines are bred into a flock, so are the health and high production factors bred and blended into Marmill poultry feeds.

Marmill poultry feeds are never made to sell on a price basis. There is no such thing as a cheap mash, for while it may be lower in price, the ultimate cost per dozen eggs is greater. Check up on these points on the mash you are now using.
