MORE CREAM MORE PROFIT

With the No. 9 MASSEY-HARRIS QUALITY-BUILT SEPARATOR

Join the army of thousands of farmers who are getting more cream—more profit—from their cows by using the Massey-Harris No. 9 Cream Separator. Quality-built from floor to supply can, the Massey-Harris No. 9 is famous for its close-skimming performance tested to .02 of 1% efficiency. Its easy operation and special low prices make the No. 9 outstanding value.

Famous Massey-Harris Film Flow Bowl with six-point distribution gets all the cream.

BUILDERS OF HIGH GRADE FARM IMPLEMENTS SINCE 1847

AS LABOR AND MANAGEMENT MEET

A FAMILY OF BUTCHERS
 When eggs were three dozen for a quarter, butter ten cents a pound and a housewife could get the best cuts of steak eight pounds for a dollar, in short, in the year 1898, E. F. Cawker started in as a butcher in Oshawa, Ont. Thursday, October 4, after 47 years continuous at the cutting board and counter, he officially retired by selling out to a returned soldier, Jack Shephard. The present staff is continuing with Ralph Butt, who has been with Mr. Cawker 23 years, as chief clerk. The former proprietor plans to continue working for a time until Mr. Shephard is familiar with the new premises. An amazing story of the Cawker family interest in the meat trade was recounted by Mr. Cawker. His grandfather, John Cawker, came to Canada to settle in Bowmanville over a hundred years ago. Just when it was, no one is sure. Five sons were all butchers.

GEESE GO SOUTH
 During Monday night large flocks of wild geese are reported to have passed over Stouffville on their annual migration to the warmer climate of the Southern States where they remain for the winter months. The flight of the geese is a sure sign that cold weather is in the offing and that citizens in these parts will shortly be wielding both the coal and snow shovel.
