Mr. Hugh Bannerman, prominent business man and proprietor of the Five-to-a-Dollar Store in Stouffville, is expected to head the organization here in the campaign for the Salvation Army Red Shield fund. Last year by voluntary subscription on a door-to-door canvass the community raised $500 for this worthy cause.

Jerry Sibley Sells 100-Acre Farm

Mr. Jerry Sibley has just sold his 100-acre farm north of Lemonville on the 7th concession to Mr. James Rae, one of our younger farmers. The sale price is reported to be $5,500, and possession will be given shortly. Mr. Sibley will hold an auction sale on the last Wednesday in this month, as announced in the sale register column.

It is just 17 years since Mr. Sibley bought the place from Pat Cooney and while he is leaving the farm no plans have been made for the future so far as where he will live are concerned.

Local Hockey Boys Anxious for Practice

May Have to Step Up to Junior O.H.A. Ruling Barring Outside Players.

The two dozen boys who recently signed their intention of participating in Junior O.H.A. hockey at Stouffville are getting a little worried regarding the lack of practice. Markham and Richmond Hill have both been on the ice several times and are shaping up [illegible] known of Scarboro. Their team will be the fourth team in the league, rather than Newmarket, according to word received from the Markham manager.

This same informant tells us that the O.H.A. has ruled that if a team [illegible] the size of Stouffville they [illegible] one player who is imported from another hockey area that team must play Class B hockey. It would thus appear that this will be a B league rather than "C" as all the teams are expected to use at [illegible] or more outside players.

Some of the boys who have signified their willingness to make up the team could have ever played O.H.A. hockey before, but some have shown marked ability on schoolyard [illegible] and the keener coaching they will receive in O.H.A. company should make them quite a [illegible]

Markham took a N.H.L. team to the tune of 7-0 in an exhibition game on the city last week. They used the best 8 players as possible [illegible] They included Carl [illegible] Bruce and Howard Forge, and Boston Minton as local talent. Goldwick who played with the Greenshirts last year, and is one of Markham's most promising juniors had the misfortune to break an arm during practice, and will be out of circulation for six [illegible]

Clarence Shelbywander who handled the Stouffville team this year for Richmond Hill is rounding up a number of hockey players in the village to enter a team in the Toronto junior league.

PREPARE FOR DECEMBER [illegible]

[illegible] by-law preparing for nomination day and if necessary

Mothercraft Clinic Officially Opened

Stouffville's first Mothercraft Baby Advice room was officially opened on Tuesday afternoon in the schoolroom of the United Church where excellent accommodation has been provided, and Mrs. H. Malloy convener of the committee in charge, presided at the opening exercises, and welcomed the large group of mothers and babies present.

Rev. Douglas Davis conducted the religion portion of the program and Mrs. Claude Brillinger favored the gathering with appropriate vocal numbers. Mrs. D. W. Smart chairman of the Kingston Rd. branch, was the speaker and was introduced by Mrs. Robt. Bor—

The Advice Room, as it is known, will be open on the second Tuesday of each month and is in charge of Miss Florence Graham, R.N., Toss graduate mothercraft nurse, attached to Toronto headquarters. Mothercraft is a teaching service to assist mothers in the care of their children as regards diet, etc. The study does not touch sickness or illness.

The first official visitor on Tuesday was little Olive Barrett Johnson, five weeks old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Johnson. Nine babies were present with their mothers.

Local Farmer will Again Compete at Chicago Stock Show

Canada's first entries for the Chicago Market Fat Stock and Carlot Competition, to be held at the Chicago Stock Yards December 1 to 6, was made by W. J. Brodie of Stouffville.

He will exhibit in the Lincoln, Cotswold and Southdown sheep classes of this event which will take place for the fourth year as a war-time substitute for the International Dominion and again in 1918 the final victory.

"Righteousness and Peace" he emphasized work hands in hand and always in the order named. It could not be otherwise either in the life of the individual or a nation.

Rev. Mr. Hughes is a veteran of two wars and was recently honoured by being made a M.B.E. for his distinguished service.

Rev. D. MacGregor officiated and called on Rev. T. D. Conroy, B.A. to offer prayer. Rev. T. Herman to read the lesson, and Rev. D. Davis to dedicate the flag recently presented to the veterans by K. R. Davis.

Mr. Carl Broadway and Mrs. Claude Brillinger sang a duet, "It Was For Me."

At the Park Memorial gates, following the service Reeve A.V. Nolan presided over the short ceremony. The provincial wreath annually donated by the Ontario government was placed by Mrs. E. Nicholson and Mrs. Gordon Hooven, and the veterans wreath by Mrs. Lloyd Eagles. The reeve said the ladies have been entrusted to perform this solemn task for reasons well known to all our people. Each had given a husband or son to the cause of freedom, he said.

Miss Alice Forsyth sounded the Last Post and Reveille and the lines reformed when the veterans paraded to the cemetery to decorate graves of comrades.

The attendance seemed larger than usual this year and numerous persons were unable to be accommodated and turned away at the church doors.

Mrs. Thos. Lewis Dies After Long Illness

Mrs. Thos. Lewis passed away on Nov. 9th following a long period of ill health that really could be traced back to the time when her husband died eight years ago. Three years ago she suffered a stroke.

Mrs. Lewis whose maiden name was Jane Grice was born in Whitchurch township and had spent all her long life in the immediate locality of Stouffville. Had she survived another week she would have reached her 83rd birthday.

Surviving are two sons Bert and Stanley both farming east of Stouffville, the late father was a well-known horseman and farmer. The Misses Grice (Mrs. Thos. Willard) and Mrs. D. T. Borden were sisters of the deceased who was the eldest of seven children. The funeral on Sunday from the late home at Altona proceeded to Stouffville cemetery for interment. Rev. T. Moyer of the W.M.C. church conducted the service.

Stouffville High School trounced their opening soccer game with

Markham-Whitchurch Road Now a County Highway

[illegible] passed [illegible] by the township engineer and Whitchurch township, [illegible] Reeve Green of the [illegible] the 7th concession has been designated a York County highway. This order confirms [illegible] by York County Council but will [illegible] required co-operation [illegible]

The road through Stouffville [illegible] Ontario Municipal Commission highway and will [illegible]

Uxbridge Twp Nomination Dec. 31

The Uxbridge Township Council met on Monday for general business and a two o'clock session for Revision of the 1946 Assessment Roll.

Two appeals were heard against the 1946 assessment but as one of these was [illegible] there was several days [illegible] one appeal was considered by the Court of Revision when the roll was adopted and confirmed.

Council passed a by-law setting Dec. 31st at one o'clock as nomination day and Jan. 7th 1946 as the date for the municipal election.

A by-law was passed authorizing the corporation to enter into an agreement with the Ontario Hydro Electric Power Commission for the [illegible] and operation of [illegible] the village of Uxbridge. The [illegible] of these agreements will mean that the Hydro Electric Commission [illegible] the [illegible] system.

The council named as committee composed of the present Councillors, members and ex-reeves resident in the township, representatives from all the School Boards and Ratepayers' [illegible] organizations in the township, and its duties shall be [illegible] committee meet on the [illegible] in January [illegible] proceedings [illegible] recognizing in some tangible way the debt we owe to our soldiers, sailors and airmen.

Road account No. 10 to the amount of $7,692.25 was passed [illegible] and general account amounting to $20.86.

The next regular meeting will be held on Dec. 10th at ten o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Saunders have moved into [illegible]