GOODWOOD

John Rae was attending County Council last week. Our representative, certainly, is a weighty fellow at the county council.

Now the necessary document have been signed and sealed in connection with street lighting for Goodwood, we are anxiously waiting for the installation to start. Can we have the bright lights by Christmas?

Mrs. Frank Shaver, we are glad to report is now improving. However, Mr. Wilkinson is not improving very much. He was active in getting hydro for our streets, and we hope he will be around to see the lights go on.

The social evening held by the Goodwood Ladies Orange Benevolent Association on Friday was attended by about fifty members and friends. Winners of the Progressive Euchre were: Sisters Mary Todd, Ruby Todd and Evelyn Bryant; Mr. W. Symes, Mr. J. Todd and Mr. T. Ogden. After lunch the Worthy Mistress in a short address thank L.O.L. 572 for their support and co-operation. Mr. D. Spenceley Master of the L.O.L. and Bro. Reuben Tindall, guardian of the L.O.B.A. replied. Dancing was to the music of Mr. Beare's recording system.

Councillor Logan Heads Plowmen

Councillor Edward Logan, Whitchurch, was elected president of the North York Plowmen's Association at the annual meeting held on Monday evening at Sharon. The gathering, in addition to carrying on its business, enjoyed a banquet. Wm. Timbers, president, presented the financial statement showing the organization to have met all its obligations including a liberal prize list.
