Mrs. Coulson 84 Dies at Unionville

The death of Martha Ann Barker, beloved wife of the late Aaron B. Coulson, occurred after a long illness at her residence in Unionville on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Coulson who was in her 84th year was born in Sharon and with her husband moved from Zephyr, their former place of residence, to Markham Township forty-eight years ago conducting a farm on the 6th concession, north of Unionville and moving to Unionville about twenty years later.

Mrs. Coulson was an active member of Central United Church, taught for many years in the Sunday School and occupied a prominent position on the Women's Organizations of the Church where she was untiring in the carrying on of her Master's work. She was an ardent Bible student and her Bible talks to the young people were inspirational.

She is survived by a son John G. Coulson who has been connected with the faculty of Macdonald College, Que., for 22 years and who occupies the position of Professor of Plant Pathology, a daughter Mrs. Stella Weatherill who has taken such tender care of her mother during the declining years, and a grandson Lloyd Weatherill of Unionville.

Surviving are four brothers Messrs. Eugene Barker, Columbus, O.; Oscar Barker, Chicago; Robert Barker, Toronto and Geo. Barker, Sharon, and three sisters Mrs. Geo. Mainprize and Mrs. Edgar Crosby, Newmarket and Mrs. R. Sugden, Galt.

Rev. H. D. McCommack of Central United Church conducted the funeral service at the house on Sunday afternoon after which the remains were taken to Hagerman Cemetery for interment. The pall bearers were Messrs. F. Pollard, A. L. Brown, Dr. A. C. Kennedy, Robt. J. Duffield, G. G. Maynard and E. J. Stiver all of Unionville.

9th LINE MARKHAM

Miss Mildred White entertained several of her friends last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Honsberger spent the Christmas holiday season with her sister, Mrs. Levi Drudge.

There passed away on the afternoon of Christmas Day a well-known and highly respected resident of our community, Mr. William Thomas. He was in his 82nd year. He had been in declining health for some months, but since early in October had been confined to the house. The late Mr. Thomas had been a resident of this locality for the past thirty years. His wife, Mary Elizabeth Robb, predeceased him fifteen years. He was a faithful member, manager and elder of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Markham and was most regular in his attendances at church service twice each Sunday until failing health prevented his doing so. The funeral service conducted by his pastor, Rev. T. DeCoursey Rayner was held at the family residence after which a church service was held at the Presbyterian Church, Markham. He is survived by his daughters, Delia (Mrs. O. Peacock), Ida (Mrs. R. H. Trinnell), and son Herbert W. Thomas on the home farm.

STRONG PLEA FOR MISSIONARY ACTIVITIES

A joint meeting of Bethesda, Peaches and Melville Auxiliaries of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church of Canada was held in Melville Church on Friday, Jan. 4th, when Mrs. Bunt of Sunderland, Vice-President Toronto East Presbyterial, Section 5, paid an official visit. There was a good attendance of members and friends from the three societies.

Mrs. William MacKay of Melville presided and each society contributed to the program. Mrs. John Brown, Unionville, by request gave a short talk. Mrs. Bunt made a strong plea for missionary activities at the present day and took for her topic "Christ the Light—Let That Light Shine on the Pathway"—in our homes, in our church and in the community.

Following the program refreshments were served in The Manse by the ladies of the auxiliaries.
