Stan Thompson is all smiles these days. "It is another cementer." Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis of Bloomington had dinner on Sunday with Mr. A. Davis. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clarkson who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clarkson and family. Mr. and Mrs. C. Flegg and family, Mr. and Mrs. S. Clarkson and sons visited them on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. E. Davis, Mary Davis, also Mr. A. Davis and Esther had tea on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Wild of Markham. Mr. Hurd who is 86 years old and lives with his daughter, Mrs. D. Morris, enjoyed a visit from his three grandsons recently who have just returned from four years overseas.

The January meeting of the W.I. was held on Wednesday, Jan. 9, at Mrs. Wm. Reesor's home. The meeting opened with the Institute Ode and prayer in unison. The minutes and business were read and discussed. The Roll Call was answered by your birthplace. The Motto, "The Light that Shines Farthest Shines Brightest at Home." Mrs. B. Reesor gave a very interesting paper on "Hardships of the Pioneers," of the hard work they had getting the land cleared and building their log houses, baking bread in the outside brick ovens and of the good times they had with a crowd of young people. Mrs. N. Bunker favored us with a piano solo and Mrs. E. Lehman gave a reading on "Important Points in Ontario," including Yonge Street, Midland and other points. A vocal duet by Mrs. Pointon and Mrs. M. Reesor and community singing was enjoyed by all. There was a demonstration on beans and a social halt hour.

CHURCH HILL

The Red Cross quilting will be held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Orville Martin. They acknowledge the gift of one quilt top and lining from Mrs. H. Pege and 2 linings from Miss Marjorie Clark.

EXPECTED HOME

The Dept. of Public Relations has released to this paper the names of the following boys who are expected to arrive this week from the Queen Elizabeth: Pte. C. W. Chase, CQMS A. Staley, Goodwood, Tpr. C.D. Beelby, Claremont, and Tpr. R. B. Baker, Stouffville.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. S.H. Foote on the arrival of their new grandson, Ronald Lorne Wideman. Our sympathy goes out to Mrs. M. Hutchinson on the death of her mother, the late Mrs. Brown. The Bethesda Women's Institute meeting last Wednesday was quite largely attended. A demonstration given by Mrs. Williams, representing The Wear-Ever Brush Co., proved very interesting as well as profitable to both saleslady and the Institute treasury, as a substantial order for the products was booked for later delivery, profits of which to be shared with the local organization. Mrs. W. Brodie and Mrs. H. Pugh were lucky prize winners. The place of meeting was at the home of Mrs. Floyd Ratcliff.

2nd LINE UXBRIDGE

We are glad to see our school attendance up to par as last week almost half were home suffering from colds. Gordon Yakely of the townline is engaged with Sam Bacon for the winter months. We are glad to report Mrs. B. McGuckin is up and around again after being confined to her bed with the flu. Due to the road condition and the heavier supply of milk being shipped Ronald Taylor is assisting Mr. Orr in gathering the milk for the Silverwood's Dairy. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Taylor and Glenda visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Farrow and Robert George Downswell, our local sportsman, had the luck to shoot a nice red Fox.

9th Line, Markham

Mr. Levi Drudge journeyed to Kansas, U.S. last week to be present at the funeral of his aunt. He expects to be away for several days. We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Will Watt whose brother, Mr. Pugsley formerly of Cookstown, died in Toronto last week. The Sewing Club met last week at the home of Mrs. Bert Batt. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Murray Lewis. Mr. Bob Thomas has returned to the O.A.C. at Guelph to resume his studies there after spending the Christmas Vacation at home. The "Panorama of Ontario" sponsored by Willard Chocolate Co. comes to Markham Town hall on Friday evening, Jan. 18. It will be most interesting to witness this broadcast under the direction of Gordon Sinclair and Allen Savage. The sympathy of our community is extended to Mrs. Robt. McElwain on the death of her sister.

VANDORF

Miss Ewart is visiting with her brother Mr. and Mrs. Ewart. Sorry to report Mrs. Moddle is confined to her bed. We trust she will soon be restored to health again. Mr. Dickey has opened a new plumbing office in Aurora on Wellington West. New traffic signal lights have been placed at Yonge and Wellington and operated on Friday for the first. This has been a very busy section, and will be appreciated by pedestrians as well as motorists. The mud became frozen over the weekend after a week or 10 days of spring-like weather. Mr. John Petch's wheat fields were showing up very green. The Second Line school remained closed, owing to the wide spread epidemic of measles, after the holiday. Early Sunday morning 3 to 4 inches of snow decorated field and tree alike. Our pastor was encouraged with the faithful attendance at prayer services held last week. Y.P.U. changed their meeting to Monday evening owing to Temperanceville Congregational Meeting on Tuesday evening. Our annual pot luck supper and congregational meeting will be held on Thursday eve of this week and good attendance of all branches of church work is requested.

LEMONVILLE

We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Hutchinson and family in the loss of a mother and grandmother. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon from the home of Mr. Keith Hutchinson here. A goodly number attended the W.A. meeting, despite the rain, at Mrs. Stewart Rae's. Rev. D. Davis was in attendance for the installation of officers for the coming year. The yearly business meeting of the church will be held this Friday night, Jan. 18th, in the church. Master Charles Barnes is still confined to his bed due to a broken leg. Charles fell while skiing during the Christmas holidays. We hope he will soon be able to be around again. We extend sympathy to Mrs. Charles Dennie whose mother passed away recently. We hope to have a good report on our hockey team for next week. We hear they are being supplied with sweaters and socks through the kind generosity of Mr. Ross Winterstein.

Whitby Juniors Win Two Games

Whitby won their second game in a row by downing Uxbridge 7-4. The game was fast with the Whitby lads showing considerable improvement over their first game. The ice was quite soft but did not hamper the play to a great extent. Bardbury and Painter were the Uxbridge best, while Lowe, Heffering and Moore standing high for Whitby. McQueen played good in goal for Whitby. Whitby won their second game against Port Perry on Monday night, 6-0, to give them three wins and no losses.
