A LINDSAY EPISODE SOLVED
Trucks Laden With Livestock Find Road to Sale Barn Blocked—But Enterprising Owner Quickly Solved the Problem to Satisfaction of Everyone
 The Lindsay Post tells an interesting story, which we condense for Tribune readers:—"Saturday's snow storm blocked all side roads in the Lindsay district including the road to the Community Fair Grounds and it was impossible to reach the barns by car or truck."
 "I was amused to see Warren Brown, owner and auctioneer, with a great many buyers and sellers, discussing what should be done with the trucks loaded with livestock on the highway and no place to go with them. Mr. Brown said "well boys there is only one thing to do and that is to sell everything right here," and within one hour, he had disposed of over $2000.00 worth of stock. The farmers all left with their cheques in their pockets and were satisfied after all."
