Grand Ma; Do you know Pop that next Thursday we'll be married 50 years?

Grand Pa; Well do I know it; how hard we worked to get the little we have.

Grand Ma; Pop you ought to be ashamed to talk like that, when we raised a nice family and have enough to keep us even if we live to be 100.

Grand Pa; I guess you're right Ma. Grand Ma; How about celebrating?

Grand Pa; What do you mean eh?

Grand Ma; Get all the family home and have a real time.

Grand Pa; That whole gang, 10 of them and their kids. They will eat us out of house and home.

Grand Ma; Now Pop don't take that attitude. Each and every one will help.

Grand Pa; How?

Grand Ma; Pop you're dumb. We'll call a gathering of the clan and let each person do and bring something.

Grand Pa; How about sugar and things?

Grand Ma; Silly; you know we've been using BAKERS SWEETNER right along and we don't need coupons for that. By the way Pop you'd better get 16 gallons BAKERS SWEETNER, it goes a lot farther than sugar and it's cheaper than sugar.

Grand Pa; I guess you're right Ma, well we'll get the bunch to gather and get things fixed up right.

Grand Ma; Henry is in Los Angeles I'll wire him. Mary lives in Hamilton, I'll phone her. Tom is in Alberta so I'll wire him. Jim can be reached in Timmins by wire. Laura is in New York so a wire will get her. Susan will be out from Toronto as soon as I phone her. John can be reached at Victoria Square by phone, and he and Zella will be right up. George is in Duluth and have a hard job getting off but if I wire him, he'll be here. Lizzie will come from B.C. if I wire her. PERSONAL

IN MEMORIAM
CARRUTHERS—In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, Richard H. Carruthers, who passed away March 7, 1939. Only a memory of bygone days, And a sigh for a face unseen, But a constant feeling that God alone Knows just what should have been. Ever remembered by Elwood, Hazel, and grandchildren Norrine and Randolph R.C.E.M.E., Debert, N.S.

IN MEMORIAM
TALBOT—In memory of my husband Eli (Henry) Talbot who passed away March 7th, 1945. Dear husband we journeyed together for fifty-eight years. You were the first to be called to go to that fair and better home, but as we both put our trust and hope in the promises of God, I am not with out hope we will meet again. So when my lonely life is o'er, dear husband, you will be waiting and watching my coming and will meet me at Heaven's shore.
Your wife, Jennie

IN MEMORIAM
TALBOT—In loving memory of our dear father and grandfather Eli (Henry) Talbot who passed away March 7th, 1945. Gone is the face we loved so dear, Silent is the voice we loved to hear. Too far away for sight or speech, But not too far for thought to reach. Sweet to remember him who once was here And who though absent is just as dear. Ever remembered by his daughter Nellie, son-in-law Ross and grandchildren.

BROWN—In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Margaret Brown who died March 7th, 1943. At early morn when all was still, She closed her eyes, it was God's will, But now she's free from worry and care, We would not wake her to suffer again, 'Tis sad but true, we wonder why. The best are always the first to die They say that time heals everything Even when loved ones part, But we found out it takes more than time, To heal a broken heart. Sadly missed by Velma, Tom and Girls.

IN MEMORIAM
MORGASON—In ever loving memory of a dearly loved wife and mother, Violet Morgason, who departed this life three years ago March 11th, 1943. Beautiful memories cherished forever. Of happy hours we spent together; A silent thought brings many a tear For a mother we miss and love so dear. We do not need a special day To bring her to our mourn, For the days we do not think of her Are very hard to find. Your presence is ever near us Your love remains with us yet; You were the kind of a mother That we will never forget. Sadly missed and lovingly remembered always by Husband and Family.

IN MEMORIAM
REDSHAW—In loving memory of our dear mother, Elizabeth Amanda Redshaw who passed away on March 7, 1920. She has gone across the river To the shores of ever green, And we long to see her dear face But the river flows between, Some day, some time, our eyes shall see. The face we loved so well, Some day we'll clasp her loving hand And never say farewell. Lovingly remembered by daughters, Ina, Ila, Ethel and Luella.

IN MEMORIAM
HOOD—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Myrtle Irene Hood, who passed away Feb. 28, 1943. Sweet memories linger forever Time cannot change them It's true, years that may come cannot sever. Our loving remembrance of you.
Husband and Son

IN MEMORIAM
BROWN—In loving memory of our dear mother, Margaret Brown, who passed away March 7, 1943. Two dear bright eyes, a tender smile A loving heart that knew no guile, Deep trust in God that all was right, Her joy to make some other bright, If sick or suffering, one she knew; Some gentle act of love she'd do, No thought of self but of the other, I know He said "well done, dear mother" Ever remembered by the family.
