The presentations were made by Chas. Gostick, Lloyd White and Duncan Dolphin, while Frank Gostick read the following address: Dear Mr. and Mrs. Riddell,

We, your neighbors, friends and relatives, have gathered here for a social hour before you depart to your home in another community. We will miss you, as you both have been kind, helpful and co-operative friends and neighbors to all, always ready and willing to do your part in making our community one of the best. Now as you retire from the strenuous ways of life to one of more rest and quietness, we would ask you to accept this studio couch and blanket as a small token of our esteem and trust you may have many years to use and enjoy them. On behalf of the community, signed, Chas. Gostick, Lloyd White and Duncan Dolphin.
