

OF INTEREST TO THE LADIES
FASHION REVIEW

FOTO-NITE at the Stanley Theatre, Thursday, April 4th will be just a little different. In place of the usual contest the management is staging a small fashion show with the co-operation of Spofford & Co. and Mrs. M. E. Watts. Four models will display costumes and millinery, provided by these local merchants. This will be quite seasonal and will give the ladies an idea of what they would like to wear this spring. Girls, don't let your husband or boy friend neglect bringing you to see this.

"HOTEL BERLIN" is the feature showing on this date.

SUPPORT THE DRIVE FOR $10,000 TO ERECT THE
STOUFFVILLE VETERANS MEMORIAL HALL

In War and now in peace you have a debt to pay—it's a debt to those gallant sons who fought and died that you might enjoy this fine community of Stouffville. During the war you brought these sons and daughters as much of the comforts of home as you could through the various charitable agencies, now these young people are home again trying to find their niche in the community life.

You can help them, and at the same time you can erect in the community a building of which you will be justly proud. In addition to providing a place of recreation for our veterans, this Memorial Hall will be a most needed asset to the town which is devoid of all hall accommodation at the moment.

In comparison to surrounding municipalities, the aim of raising $10,000 is not high, so let's put it over the top.
