As it was, pasture lands were dead, and could be greatly harmed by allowing stock to roam them before getting some start with spring growth.
Had rain come a week ago, it would have been hailed as a million dollar shower, because of the refreshing effects it would have had on the meadows. The cattle could have been freed to pick their own living largely. As matters stood they were kept in and fed winter fodder.

GONE WITH THE WIND

Whether it was the tail end of the tidal wave on the Pacific coast, or from what ever source it arose, the terrific wind of Tuesday afternoon, raised a sand storm over the countryside that looked in spots like a snow storm. Everything movable on front street in town blew around, old papers, mixed with dust and dirt were flying in the air like sea gulls. About five o'clock part of a clothes line came hurling down Main street from the west. A stocking broke away from the line, but the cord and a pair of pyjamas kept on going. The garment was so big, we would have claimed it for the town constable, only it came from the west end, and so it may have been the property of Councillor Jack Smidt. In any event the line disappeared down Market street floating high and heading for Lake Ontario.

GOODWOOD

Miss Winnie Stewart was home over the weekend.

On Wednesday, March 27th our milkman, Robt. Dawson met with an accident when his milk truck travelling north on the 3rd concession left the road and struck a tree injuring Mr. Dawson, and also young Martin who was riding with him from school, was thrown out in the crash, but fortunately was only shaken up. The truck will require a new cab.

Miss Grace Wagg arrived home on Thursday evening not feeling very well, but glad to report she is better and returned to Toronto Sunday night.

We welcome Mrs. Wilkinson back to her home in Goodwood, after spending the winter in Toronto with her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Sikes. Mrs. Sikes and sons Wm. and Ern. are also here for a time. Mr. Reuben Middleton, relief section foreman, is relieving foreman Geo. Hutchinson at Stouffville for a week. Mr. A. Staley is taking Reuben's place on the track at Goodwood.

Miss Ann Christie of Toronto spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Whittleton.

Mrs. G.A.M. Davison, Unionville is keeping her Motor License Office open till 9 p.m. for two weeks to a distance who find it inconvenient to come in the day time.

WARNING NOTICE TO BICYCLE RIDERS

Kindly take notice that in compliance with numerous complaints, I have instructed the town constable to enforce the workings of the by-law forbidding bicycles being ridden on the sidewalks.
During the winter season some leeway was granted, but there is no excuse for riding bicycles on the sidewalks from this time on.
Please govern yourselves accordingly, and avoid a summons.
A. V. NOLAN, Reeve.

PEACHES

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Dupries on the birth of a son on April 1st at Markham nursing home.

We welcome Mr. J. W. Warriner home again after spending some three months of winter weather in Florida. We report him feeling just splendid.

Mr. Henry Miller, Don and Bud, also Jack Warriner ventured forth after suckers on Saturday and returned with full nets, over 500 of the finny tribe. The neighbors report them very good eating.

Miss Dorothy Hoover and Miss Ruth Askwith of Toronto, were visitors at the Hoover home on Saturday.

Mr. Bruce Hisey of Ajax spent the weekend with his parents. Mr. Jim Sheppard and Doug Cleverdon of Toronto spent the weekend at the Cleverdon home.

A number from our line attended the lecture and slides at Melville church on Friday evening.

Owing to decorating Peaches church the Sunday services will be held at Melville church for the next few Sundays.

The Y.P.U. meeting is to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Watt on Thursday evening. A good attendance is hoped for.

A number from our line enjoyed the crokinole party held at the Jarvis home last Thursday evening.
