Weddings

ROBINSON—WAGG

A pretty wedding was solemnized in Earlscourt United Church, Toronto, on March 30th at 3 o'clock, when Rev. Carmen Hie officiated at the marriage of Ruth Margaret Wagg, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Wagg of Stouffville and Graham George Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Robinson of St. John, Quebec.

The bride wore a pale blue crepe street length dress with blue accessories and carried a nosegay of roses. She was attended by Miss Connie Delarue who wore a fuschia crepe street length dress with brown accessories and carried a nosegay of tallsmen roses.

Wallace Robinson of Ottawa, brother of the groom, was best man. After the ceremony the reception was held in Haddon Hall. For travelling the bride wore a three-piece medium blue suit with matching accessories. After a trip to Montreal they will make their home in Toronto. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Martin of Newmarket, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Carruthers, Clarendon, Mr. Gordon Wagg, Stouffville, and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Robinson, Ottawa.

SMITH—PATTENDEN

At home of the bride's parents, Vandorf, on Saturday afternoon, April 6th, 1946, Elva Kathleen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pattenden became the bride of Mr. Roy Kenneth Smith, son of Mr. W. H. Smith, and the late Mrs. Smith of Gormley. Rev. E. C. Moddle officiated.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white crepe with Victorian yoke, and long white net with silk embroidered finger tip veil. She wore a single strand of pearls, and carried pink roses.

Mrs. Irene Foote, sister of the bride, was matron of honour and Miss Aileen Smith, sister of the groom was bridesmaid. Both were gowned in pink sheer with matching halo and shoulder. Mary Pattenden, niece of the bride was flower girl dressed in blue crepe and carried sweet peas.

Mr. Leslie Smith, brother of the groom, was best man. Miss Lottie Atkinson, cousin of the bride, played the wedding music and Miss Muriel Pattenden, sister of the bride, sang "When Song is Sweet," and "I Love You Truly."

The bride's mother received wearing a two-piece dress of blue triple sheer and wore a corsage of red roses. After the reception the couple left on a short wedding trip.

VANDORF

Mr. and Mrs. Lorrie Johnson and family spent Sunday with her mother Mrs. Irwin in Stouffville.

Signalman Harry Greenwood of Maple and brother Harold of Toronto spent a few days with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Greenwood.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Art Starr on the gift of a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Coates and family of Midhurst spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wilf. Lundy.

Mrs. Melbourne Emmerson, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Winterstein and daughter had tea with Mr. and Mrs. Grant Morley recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Foster and May had tea on Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin and Johnny had Sunday dinner with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ewen.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Morley were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pattenden.

The Ladies' Aid was held last Wednesday at Mrs. James Oliver's under the north group, Mrs. H. E. Oliver, convener. A large attendance present, a varied program was enjoyed, and a dainty luncheon was served.

On Thursday evening a miscellaneous shower was held in honour of Miss Elva Pattenden, now Mrs. Smith. The hall was packed to capacity and the gifts were both numerous and lovely. The wedding took place at her home on Saturday. We wish the bride and groom much joy as they make their home on the 3rd line near Mt. Pisgah

RINGWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Greenfield have moved to the Sylvanus Baker farm, recently purchased by Alex. Ratcliff.

Mrs. John Lee of Stouffville spent a couple of days with her sister, Mrs. J. M. Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. David Crosier of Altona were Friday evening callers with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grove.

Mrs. Gertrude Burkholder is assisting during rush hours at the Mayfair restaurant.

Mr. and Mrs. Len. Wilkes and sons of Stouffville were Sunday visitors with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Peck.

Mr. Joe Fockler has started working with our local county road foreman, John Forson.

Dr. and Mrs. Hargrave of Toronto have opened their summer home at Dixon Hill for the season.

About seventy-five friends and neighbors gathered at the Norman Steckley home last Thursday evening to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Steckley and their daughters, as they leave our neighborhood to go to the Sixth line, where Norman is to have charge of the Ross Winterstein farm. The Steckley family will be greatly missed from our church and Sunday school where they have all been active workers. A beautiful floor lamp and leather hassock were presented as a token of esteem, following a program of games. Our best wishes go with them to their new home, and a warm welcome will always await them as they visit us from our neighboring community.

WHITBY ARE ONTARIO JUNIOR 'C' CHAMPS

Whitby Red Wings won the O.H.A. Junior 'C' championship, taking it away from Port Colborne Jr. Sailors via a protest and a relay of one game of the final series. Whitby lost the game 5-4, but won the round 13-10.

Doc McEwen, Whitby netminder, won the title for Whitby for he stopped 25 shots in the first 7 or 8 minutes and another 25 in the remainder of the period when the junior Tars peppered a barrage at him from all angles as they ganged from the start on their anxiety to overcome the four-goal lead which Whitby gained in the second game of the series at Oshawa.

Nixon went 60 minutes on the Port Colborne defense with Krahauc doing about 50. Aside from McEwen, Lintner, McCloskey and Gates were best of the Red Wings.

CLAREMONT

The regular meeting of the Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. T. Bacon on Wednesday, April 17th, at 2.30 p.m. Topic on social welfare.

A social occasion was held last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Riddell, south of Clarendon, when about seventy-five friends and neighbors of community gathered for a surprise party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tran. Mr. John Keeler read the address while Mrs. Jack Mitchell presented the couple with a beautiful chenille bedspread. Mr. and Mrs. Tran feelingly replied. They have taken up residence in the Atha district.

BLOOMINGTON

Mrs. Tramer visited in Orangeville last week.

Mr. E. Winterstein has purchased a cabin-trailer.

All good wishes for future happiness to the newly-weds Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wagg.

Mr. F. Hill's have moved from the Forsyth farm to the Wideman farm below Stouffville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Kee and daughter of Orangeville were guests at O. H. Trammer on Sunday.

Mrs. Lemon Paisley recently returned to her home here after spending the winter with her daughter Mrs. Heise.

Friends and neighbors held a get-together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Reesor on Tuesday evening.

We are glad to have Mr. and Mrs. W. Spence and family in our community. They moved from Ballantre to the D. Hall farm here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Winterstein who have sold their farm to Mr. E. Smith, have moved to Stouffville, occupying the house of Mrs. H. Barnes. This popular couple were the recipients of a pair of electric lamps. We all regret their removal from the community, but give a warm welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Smith who are not strangers here by any means.

Mrs. M. Barnes was in Brampton last Tuesday. We sincerely regret the devastating fire which consumed the home of her sister, Mrs. Allan Johnson last Monday forenoon. Only a small portion of the contents were saved.

Our road foreman Mr. E. Davis is busy removing the snow fences. Under his supervision we have had a good road until the recent warm spell caused some bad ruts. Here's hoping we may soon be able to announce a start being made on putting down a tarvia top. It has been advocated long enough, and is badly needed.

GORMLEY

We welcome to our community Mrs. Wesley Grove who just arrived in Toronto last Sunday from the Ile de France. Mrs. Grove has come from Kent, England, and we hope she may make many friends here. She and Wesley will make their home in Toronto where Wesley is employed with Goodyear's.

Mr. Willard Schlichter and Miss Blanche Hoover visited last Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Schlichter. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Geiger of New Dundee spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Schlichter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cober of Toronto had supper Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. E. Doner and family.

Rev. and Mrs. Cecil Brown of St. Catherines visited last week in the Bond home.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. R. Stanfield on the birth of a son. Mr. and Mrs. Stanfield have purchased the home formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Lord.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Sider visited their daughter, Agnes, at Fort-Erie Bible School last Friday.

Large crowds in the afternoon and evening attended services last Sunday in the M.B.C. church in charge of students from Emmanuel Bible School, Kitchener. Inspirational messages were given by Mr. Chinton Bell and Rev. Ward Shantz. Other features of special note were the Ladies' Double Trio and testimonies.

Our sympathy is extended to the family of Mrs. James Hunt. Mrs. Hunt was buried in Heise Hill Cemetery last Sunday.

We notice Mr. Albert Leek all smiles these days, especially on Sunday when his new grandson visited him.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Schlichter moved on Monday to the farm of Mr. Albert Heise. We wish them success in this venture.

Also we wish success to Mr. and Mrs. George Barrett who have recently taken over management of the farm of Mr. and Mrs. R. Millen.

Our Hydro camp has taken on new life once more. A new gang moved in from Newmarket on Monday and wiring operations will begin immediately.
