Mr. and Mrs. George Lee motored to Windsor to spend a week or ten days.

A pair of eye glasses in a reddish brown case were left at The Tribune. The owner may have them on application.

An old town boy Mr. Norval Vanzant was down from Winnipeg spending a week with his mother Mrs. Henry Vanzant at the old home here, and with his sister Mrs. Kidd.

Mrs. Alex. Grubin has returned to Stouffville and taken up residence in the apartment on Church street. Old friends will be delighted to learn that this former resident of town and district has located in our midst once again. Unfortunately Mrs. Grubin is not enjoying very good health, but everybody will hope that her condition will rapidly improve.

A reader writes from Uxbridge to say that he reads the Tribune "second-hand" each week. yet as he says, "we think it is the best weekly we have ever read." The publishers appreciate the compliment by our Uxbridge friends, and so long as he reads it we are satisfied. It matters not who pays the subscription price so far as we are concerned.

Local stores opened Tuesday night for the first of the summer schedule, giving increased service to the farming community, in lieu of closing on Wednesday afternoon all year around. While May 1st seems a little early to start Tuesday night opening, some years it might not be the case. With a long dry spring, farming are well advanced with their work and find no difficulty in shopping in the daytime just now.

Youth for Christ Meeting Here Saturday

On Saturday, May 11th, and continuing each Saturday at 8:15 p.m. the Youth for Christ group will hold meetings in the Mennonite church, Stouffville. For the opening occasion Rev. H. A. Banghey of Pontiac, Mich., will be the speaker. He is inspirational and challenging to youth. Special music by the King's Radio Quintette of Toronto, will further enliven the program. They are famous singers of gospel songs. Just one thing more, be on time if you would make sure of a seat. The evening is open for all youth and men.

First shipment of dishes direct from England in those familiar open crates, straw-packed, arrived in town a few days ago for Spofford & Co. It is likely that the last shipment of this nature to come here was consigned to The Shaw Store probably as long as ten years ago. Old country business must be steadily getting underway again, despite the terrible mauling the country has had, and the later interruption due to strikes which held up production and is still doing so.

Annual Election of Officers

At the next regular meeting of Stouffville Women's Institute on Thursday, May 16, the annual election of officers will take place. Motto for the meeting will be given by Mrs. Walsh, while roll call will be answered by paying fees. The report of the standing committees and of the secretary-treasurer will be heard at this time, and Mrs. John Spence will give a reading. There will be music and a social half-hour enjoyed. Mrs. Malloy, president, and Miss S. Stewart, secretary, on behalf of the officers extend a cordial invitation to all members and others interested in the work to be present.

What About Our Tennis Club?

The Stouffville Tennis Club was re-organized late last fall, but as yet we have heard nothing about them getting into action so far this season. Already the Park caretaker is at work, and some of his efforts might be solicited on behalf of the Club. The courts are in fine shape for rolling right now. Uxbridge has re-organized this year, and hopes to renew some of the challenge matches they used to have in other years. C.B. Willis is president and Mrs. Bob Harris, sec'y.

The canvassers are right in the midst of their work endeavouring to get pledges for $10,000 cash as a memorial to the soldiers who fought and of those who never came back. This will be your only chance to do something tangible to show your appreciation. Many towns have honored their sons. So far Stouffville and district has done nothing. Your donation will be viewed by the lads as your "something" in honor of what they did.

Home from Labrador

Cpl. Clifford Barkey arrived home from Labrador last weekend, having received his discharge from the RCAF. He was stationed at Goose Bay, 150 miles inland from the Atlantic and which is only reached by air route. There were two bases located here, one Canadian and one for the Yankees, from which place they hop off for Scotland. Cliff says the weather was moderate, but the waters around there are commonly referred to as the graveyard of the Atlantic, because of the heavy fogs that hang over that area. Mrs. Barkey has been living with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Delos Graham, Ringwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Barkey will now make future plans since he is about to be reestablished in civilian life.

The reeve of the town was interviewed by two different firms last Saturday with a view to obtaining factory space for rental. One firm is a pant manufacturing concern, the other is engaged in the textile business, and were very anxious to open a branch plant in Stouffville. Unfortunately, nothing came of the interviews since there is not a property available for such work. An effort was made to interest the firms in building, but they were both adverse to putting their money into real estate, and furthermore were of the opinion that materials were not available for building. We understand that the Home Manufacturing Co., in the Ratchiff block is employing about 20 hands, and a similar number is engaged at the Gold Fish Supply, and while this takes up the female help fairly well, there is a strong desire that a factory that would require male help would be a benefit to the town. Perhaps this is right, but such male help is very limited in numbers. Any young man who is mechanically inclined, can find employment at the Stouffville Machine & Tool Works.

GORMLEY

A Choir of 42 Voices will sing at the Mennonite Brethren in Christ Church Sunday afternoon and evening. This will be the closing of the Missionary Convention. Plan to attend. Time 10.30 a.m., 3 p.m., 7.30 p.m.

The Butcher Shops Stormed

Local butcher shops were stormed all day Saturday, and late in the evening by out-of-town buyers seeking to purchase meat. City folk just stepped up to the butcher and said "beef," please. It didn't matter the cut so long as it was a roast of beef. As far as the press is aware supplies held out very well, and everybody seemed to be satisfied with what they could get, although perhaps the size of the roast was not as heavy as some would have liked, since they invariably said, "any size will be all right."

Moving to Lemonville

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ries who recently sold their property in the southwest section of the town as reported in this paper last week, have rented a small acreage at Lemonville known as the Callaghan place and situated near the school there, where they will move shortly. Mr. and Mrs. Ries intend to buy a building lot in Stouffville, and hope to erect another home here next year. This is the young couple whom we reported as having served in the war years overseas. Mrs. Ries was not in the English army, however, but she did serve in R.C.A.F. for 4 years, three and a half of which were overseas. She had been a Canadian 15 years, and her husband is a Yankee. They have become very fond of Stouffville, and would like nothing better than to again get a permanent home in our midst. Perhaps, if plans go right, they may try out turkey farming.

Mrs. Ann Charuick and Miss Irene Schlasser of Toronto spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lageer.

Miss Grace Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bell has arrived home, apparently much improved in health, friends will be delighted to learn.

We understand about $120 was raised.

There was an enormous crowd in town on Saturday for the furniture sale of Mr. Thos. Birkett, who recently sold his attractive residence on Main street west to Mr. Ross Winterstein. Mr. Birkett and son, Gordon will take up residence in their new quarter recently purchased from the Hoover estate and situated on Church street south. It is a smaller, less commodious house that will suit their needs better than the larger place just vacated.

Farewell to Old Friends

Last Friday evening about 40 friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brillinger gathered at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Salmon, Main street west, to bid farewell to the couple who have since left to make their home in Western Canada. A delightful program of games and amusements was well planned and carried out, all of which came to a finish when an appetizing lunch was served, and the departing couple presented with a gift intended to remind them in future years of their old friends and neighbors. The presentation and address was made by Mr. Joe Borinsky and was replied to by Mr. and Mrs. Brillinger in feeling terms. Mr. and Mrs. Salmon who opened their home for the affair have the thanks of the committee and all who attended.
