Mr. and Mrs. Public! BEWARE!!

The country will soon be flooded with merchandise of all descriptions! New business concerns are being formed over night! The hungry market will be exploited by mushroom concerns that will spring up over night. But where will they be when the cream is gone and the going gets tough?

They will disappear like the flies in the fall, and you will be left holding the bag. You will require replacement parts and service, but where will you get them? That is the $64.00 question.

So why take a chance, when you can still buy from such old reliable companies as: COCKSHUTT PLOW; BEATTY BROTHERS; PHILCO; W.C. WOOD; WESTINGHOUSE; COLEMAN and DeLAVAL. These have stood the test throughout the ages and no doubt will still be going strong when Gabriel blows his trumpet. So why not stick by those who stick by you. These old reliable concerns realize just how badly you need those long wanted implements, refrigerators, radios, etc. and are doing everything possible to get them in your hands. Unfortunately they have been handicapped by labor strikes, lack of materials, etc. Remember though, they insist upon using only the best materials, and refuse to substitute. They have their reputation at stake and will take no chances. We respectfully urge you to buy only from the old reliable manufacturers and be sure of service in the years to come.

Our motto: If we cannot recommend it, we won't sell it!

Will Make Home at Ballantrae

The marriage of Velma youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Pegg, and Roy Murray Flewell son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Flewell was solemnized in the Christian church parsonage by the Rev. C. G. Montgomery on Saturday, June 1st.

Spring flowers formed the setting of the room which the bride entered to the strains of Lohengrin Bridal chorus so beautifully played by Miss N. Stapleton.

The bride's dress was of white triple sheer crepe, matching skull cap, her finger-tip veil held in place by clusters of orange blossom and carried old fashioned five sear nose-gay of red roses and white narcissus, her only ornament was a gold bracelet, gift of the groom's mother. Attending her was her sister, Mrs. R. Wright who wore pink triple sheer dress with gold sequins trim, matching skull cap, trimmed with lace and sequins and shoulder length veil and carried a nose-gay of pink roses and blue forget-me-nots. Mr. Richard Wright was best man.

Owing to sickness, the groom's parents could not attend. The young married couple called on them and received God's blessing on their future married life.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Her mother welcomed guests in a black and grey silk jersey dress with rose trim and wore a corsage of pink roses. Leaving later for a trip to North Bay and other points, the bride wore for travelling a rose-pink dress and white plastic hat and bag topped turquoise blue coat and a corsage of pink roses and white narcissus. The couple will live in Ballantrae upon their return.

6th Line Whitchurch

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clendenning from western Canada, and makes special reference to their trip elsewhere in this issue.

Recent heavy rains have boosted the crops in this area, which give promise of a bountiful harvest again, and this will be valuable to our contribution to other parts of the world where famine threatens this coming winter, unless our help is very substantial.

"Mr. Reynard" (the fox) has taken up residence at the rear of some farms in this vicinity. Since his chief menu consists of chicken dinner, farmers would be well advised to guard their hen pens.

A delegation of young ladies from this line representative of the Women's Institute attended the District Annual held in Stouffville on Tuesday.

Miss Reta Nicely, R.N. of London, Ont. is spending a few days at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Nicely.

Constable Job Scott and Mrs. Scott of Toronto who are holidaying in the old home district here, are occupying the temporary quarters on their lot immediately east of the Clubine farm on the townline. We welcome the activity around this spot where some day a modern dwelling will grace the splendid site.
