WEDDINGS

HOPE—BACON

On the lawn, baskets of Delphinians and white lilies formed the setting of the marriage for Lillian Isabella, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bacon, who became the bride of Walter Murray Hope, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hope, both of Goodwood, on Saturday evening, July 6th. Rev. E. Morton officiated.
The wedding march was played by Miss Martha Stewart, Toronto, and Miss Evelyn Bacon, sister of the bride sang, "O Perfect Love", during the signing of the register.
The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length dress of white slipper satin with matching cabot and veil trim and carried a cascade of red roses with ferns. Her attendants were Miss Winnie Stewart of Toronto, as maid of honour and Miss Elizabeth Taylor, Stouffville as bridesmaid, were attired alike in floor length dress of white net lace with a spray of white flowers in their hair and carried pink roses. The best man was Mr. Gordon Taylor of Toronto.
About 50 guests sat down to a dainty reception. The bride's mother received wearing blue figured crepe dress with white accessories and corsage of carnations, assisted by the groom's mother in black and white sheer crepe dress with black accessories and corsage of carnations.
Later the couple left on a wedding trip to Ottawa, for travelling the bride chose white eyelet dress with white accessories. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm at Garbaldi.

Nursing Sister and Army Chaplain Wed in Victoria Square Church

Victoria Square United Church, attractively arranged with summer greens, blue and white delphinians, was the setting for an interesting summer wedding on Tuesday afternoon, July 9th, when Lieut. Nursing Sister Doris Madeline Boddy, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Boddy of Oshawa, became the bride of Honorary Captain and Chaplain Eldridge Argyle Currey, younger son of Mrs. Currey, of Central Butte, Sask., and the late Mr. David M. Currey of Glen Elm Ave., Toronto.
Rev. Eria M. Currey, B.A. of Central Butte, Sask., sister of the groom, performed the double ring ceremony. Mr. S. Floyd Davies, Willowdale United Church, played the wedding music, singing Albert Hay Malotte's setting of "The Lord's Prayer" during the service. While the register was being signed Mr. Davies sang "All Joy be Thine", accompanied by Mrs. Davies.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore her dress uniform and carried a Bible which was her constant companion overseas. For the occasion, the Bible was bound with white Duchess satin, crested with a cluster of white gardenias and white sweet peas intermingled with white bouvardia. Streamers of white ribbons caught with sweet peas gracefully fell from its pages.
Her three attendants were similarly dressed in street length frocks of crepe with small flowered hats to match and misted with veiling. They carried fan-shaped bouquets of pink roses and pink and blue delphiniums. Her sisters, Miss Helen, as maid of honor was in petal pink, and Miss Margaret, as bridesmaid, wore Romance blue. Miss Loretta Mae Currey, young daughter of the groom, wearing a dress of primrose yellow taffeta and a halo of flowers in her hair, and carrying a miniature of the senior attendants' bouquets, was junior bridesmaid. Mr. Clifford E. Currey was best man for his brother and ushering the guests were Mr. Stewart McRoberts and Mr. John Dobson.
Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Adelaide House, Oshawa. Mrs. Boddy, the bride's mother, received her guests at the entrance to the spacious drawing-room. Her gown was twilight blue crepe with matching hat and accessories. She wore a corsage of Pinochio roses. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Currey, mother of the groom. She had chosen an ensemble of navy mesh with white accents. Her hat was of navy straw and her corsage of Briarcliff roses.
The bride and groom left for an extended trip to New York. For travelling the bride wore an ensemble of brown and white with brown and white hat and white accessories. Upon their return they will take up residence at Victoria Square where Capt. Currey is minister of the United Church.
The bride was a Nursing Sister in the Canadian Army for six years, four of which were spent in Europe.
