WHITEVALE
The First Baptist Church had an interesting speaker on Sunday morning, when Mr. Fletcher of the South American Evangelistic Society spoke on the state of religion in South America. He showed slides at Green River church on Sunday evening.
The annual Sunday School picnic of the Whitevale United Church was held on Wednesday afternoon at Lynbrook Park. Cars left the general store at 2.30 o'clock.
Next Sunday morning, July 21st, a representative from the Soudan Interior Mission, will address the congregation of First Baptist Church, Whitevale, and later that evening show slides of the work at the Green River Baptist Church. This date was erroneously reported last week as July 14.
The Whitevale United Church Circuit Young People's Society gathered at the baseball diamond on Thursday evening for a camp fire meeting. There were fine speakers who inspired their hearers, and then later there was a sing song and camp-fire games.
The annual memorial service at Whitevale Union Cemetery will be held on Sunday afternoon, July 21, at 2.30 o'clock.
The Women's Institute, Whitevale branch, held their July meeting at the home of Mrs. W. A. Hills on Wednesday afternoon. The roll call was answered by "An Item of Social Welfare". Mrs. J. McLachlan was the speaker for the afternoon and there was special music.
Mrs. Judson Pugh is entertaining on Friday evening, July 19, in honor of Miss Doris Wilson and a few of her intimate friends. Miss Wilson is leaving for a four months stay in Montreal on business for her firm.

Everyone in Whitevale is getting out their paint brushes and paint buckets. Mr. Norman Miller's residence is now newly painted, and the Geo. Burkholder residence is now going under the paint brushes. Mrs. Campbell Anthony is painting their home.
Mr. Austin Metcalfe is holidaying at his home here.
Mr. Imar Udell is spending two weeks in Markham, doing carpentry work.
The citizens of Whitevale and Pickering Township lost a very fine friend on Saturday evening, when Mr. D. R. Beaton passed on into rest at his home here in Whitevale. Mr. Beaton had been in failing health for some time. He was in his eighty-sixth year.
A friend of everyone, rich or poor, young or old, Mr. Beaton labored in the township in the individual interest of his various clients, as well as in the collective interests of the township as a whole. Many citizens of Whitevale owe his or her prosperity to the sage advice of Mr. Beaton who sought little or no monetary reward for himself. One of his customary phrases to those to whom he rendered service was "It has been a pleasure to work for you."
Mr. Beaton spent all his life in and around the vicinity of Whitevale. An obituary notice appears under special heading.
Mr. Beaton was a member of the I.O.O.F. and Masonic lodges.
