PERSONAL

IN MEMORIAM GIBSON—In fond memory of Alfred E. Gibson who passed away Sept. 17, 1945.

His weary hours and days of pain, His troubled nights are past, And in our aching hearts we know He has found sweet rest at last. Fondly remembered by son Jim and family.

IN MEMORIAM JONES—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. H. W. Jones who passed away Sept. 12, 1932.

At night the silent stars look down On a grave not far from here, Where sleeps the one we can't forget The one we loved so dear; The dearest mother this world could hold; The cheeriest smile, and a heart of gold; For those who knew her, all will know How much we lost long years ago. Lovingly remembered by Daughter and Family

IN MEMORIAM MATTHEWS—In loving memory of my husband Lafayette Matthews who departed this life Sept. 12, 1943.

Deep in my heart lies a picture Of a loved one laid to rest: In memory's frame I shall keep it Because he was one of the best. 'Tis sweet to know we'll meet again Where troubles are no more And that the one we loved so well Has just gone on before. Ever remembered by his wife Mary.

APPRECIATION In disposing of the Mayfair Restaurant to Mr. R. Burkholder, we wish to thank the public for their generous patronage, and bespeak the same cordial consideration for our successors. Mrs. Maybee Ed. Dorey

WHITEVALE

On Wednesday evening the office board of the United Church appointment met in the parsonage to discuss important church business. All those who are interested in the Sunday School work of First Baptist Church are invited to attend the annual election of officers being held Friday evening, September 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Anthony. The hour is eight o'clock.

For the Labor Day weekend Mr. David Turner and Mr. Austin Metcalfe were visitors in Welland. They called on Mr. and Mrs. Terry Lapp. Another English bride has arrived in our community and we welcome her. She is Mrs. Leslie Randall who arrived here on Friday last.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lindsay and Mrs. Teeple returned home on Labor Day after vacationing during the summer in the northland and in Woodstock.

The Misses Iris and Elaine Dennison with Mrs. Dennison and Mrs. Fred Dennison were the Labor Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Heal. A gay party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lindsay on Saturday in honor of Miss Jean-Maria Lindsa who recently celebrated her birthday. Ten guests of the junior set attended, and enjoyed an afternoon of games and refreshment from the hours of three to six p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hiltz and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hiltz were in Toronto on Saturday afternoon attending the marriage in St. Mark's Anglican Church of Miss Forence Grover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Grover (of Toronto and formerly of Whitevale) to Mr. James Wetherstone. The reception was held at Hunt's Limited.

Miss Blanche Hamlin has enrolled as a student at the Toronto Normal School.

Miss Jean Fleming was a guest at the marriage of her friend Miss Joan Cook to Mr. Graham Lawson, solemnized in St. John's Church, Norway, on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grove of North Markham were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hiltz on Sunday.

Miss Donna Wilson of King City has been the weekend guest of Miss Catherine Hornshaw.

Mrs. Kenneth Hastings opened her home on Wednesday afternoon to the W.A. of the Whitevale United Church, fifty ladies were present, and the word for roll call was "Labor". The program was a very interesting one. Mrs. Geo. Hamlin and Mrs. D. B. Annis sang. A reading was presented by Mrs. George Hastings and Mrs. Harry Keyes gave a piano solo. At the conclusion of the meeting a dainty luncheon was served. The guest speaker of the day was Mrs. Hoag of Locust Hill.

First Baptist church, Whitevale, held their first annual business meeting last Friday evening when most inspiring reports from all departments were given. A total of three thousand dollars was received and invested in the Lord's work during the past year, and attendance at services showed a marked increase.

With their new church home well under way, these people are setting aside next Sunday as membership Sunday in view of their final organization as a Baptist church. The ordinance of communion will be observed after the service, in which the members will take part.
